SEEKS EXCHANGE OF VISITS BETWEEN COUNTRY RULERS

INVITATIONS TO VISIT U. S. WILL BE EXTENDED PER-SONALLY

HOOVER WANTS TO REMOVE ALL
"HIGH HAT" ATMOSPHERE
FROM HIS TOUR

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Palo Alto, Calif., Nov. 15.—President-elect Hoover hopes to establish
through his Latin-American tour the
neighborly custom of an exchange of visits between the heads of those countries and the United States.

To that end, he will invite officials
in the various Central and South
American countries he visits to come to the United States as the guests of
the nation during his administration
as president, it was learned today.

These invitations will be extended
personally, and thus will carry the cordiality added by the personal
touch.

Hoover wants to remove all "high hat" atmosphere from his visit. He has requested the state department
that he go as a private citizen instead of as official representative of the United States. He has decided to take Mrs. Hoover along with him.

Mrs. Hoover will be accompanied by her private secretary, Miss Ruth Fessler, of Duluth, Minn., who like
the president-elect and Mrs. Hoover,
is a graduate of Stanford University.

These two will be the only women
aboard the battleship Maryland.
Their presence will be contrary to
established custom in the American
navy, but exceptions have been made.

Hoover's idea in inviting officials
of Latin-American nations to visit
the United States while he is president goes beyond his own administration in purpose. He would like to see it a permanent custom for
heads of the various countries in the western hemisphere to visit one another, a custom of European nations
for centuries.

Hoover has broadened the scope of
his tour to include a visit to Nicaragua, as it was indicated several days ago by the United Press. With his visit to Mexico, he thus will
make a personal appearance in the
two countries below the Rio Grande
in which most ill feeling against the United States has been shown in recent years.

Cordial invitations have come from
other Central American countries but
no decision has yet been reached as
to visits. There is a possibility the
president-elect may visit Guatemala.
The only stops provided in the ten-
tentative southward itinerary to Valparaiso, Chile, besides Managua,
Nicaragua, are Balboa, in the Canal
Zone, and Lima, Peru.

Invitations from Colombia, Ecuador and Bolivia still are under consideration.

The itinerary will be flexible and indefinite for the present, according
to Hoover's assistant, George Aker-
son. Additional stops may be decided upon while enroute, he explained.

QUICK JUSTICE OVERTAKES 3 NEGRO KILLERS

MURDER

THEY CONFESS TO THIS AND AN-
OTHER KILLING, BOOKED
FOR BOTH MURDERS

Chicago, Nov. 15.—(UP)—Within
fifteen minutes after three negroes
held up and killed a druggist here
last night, they were captured, had
confessed to that killing and another, and were booked for both murders.

Peter Lucas, 45, was killed last night in his South State street drug
store by the three negroes, Morgan
Swan, 22; Napoleon Glover, 19, and Van Dontaerax, 22, when he offered resistance.

A squad of police was on the trail
in a few minutes and ran down the trio in an apartment house. After a brief gun battle the three negroes
surrendered and confessed to killing Lucas.

At the police station they admitted killing Mathew Luck, negro, in a drug store hold up last Sunday night. Luck was a bystander.

Six Soldiers Killed, Trapped in Cabin of Plane

'GERALDINE MARY' DRIFTING OFF IRISH COAST

London, Nov. 15.—(UP)—The
"Geraldine Mary," owned by Anglo-Newfoundland Development Co., wireless today that she is temporarily stopped off Cape Clear, Ireland, and drifting at the rate of one and one-half miles an hour. The ship's trouble was not disclosed.

CHRISTIANSON FOR HIGHER GAS TAX IN STATE

HIGHWAY PROGRAM

SAYS INCREASE WILL BE "PAIN-
OF ROADS

St. Paul, Nov. 15.—(UP)—Governor Theodore Christianson yesterday
declared himself in favor of an increase in the state gasoline tax as a means of continuing the trunk highway program.

The governor, in his first official
statement since election to a third
term, said he believed a tax increase
was "painless" since it placed the
burden of highway maintenance up-
on those who use the roads most.

At the same time the governor
pronounced firm opposition to any efforts to amend the state reorganization act at the cost of economy
policies and indicated measures
through which the coming legislature
may render further aid to agricultural sections of the state.

Concerning the adoption of amendment No. 1, the governor pointed out
that diversion of one-third of the
gas tax revenues, as provided by the amendment, threatens the general
highway program.

"I believe adoption of the amendment will make it necessary to increase the gasoline tax," the governor said. "This tax, I believe, is the
fairest tax imposed since it places
the burden upon those who use the roads most."

The statement followed that of C.
M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, last week that the tax would have to be increased from two to
four cents.

Proposed creation of a state department of conservation is the only
major measure that looms at the
present time for further perfection
of the state reorganization act, the governor explained.

"Such a department was originally proposed in the reorganization of
the state government, so the proposal now amounts to resubmission
of the plan," he said. "The reorganization plan has saved the people
of Minnesota money, and at the
same time has permitted increased
expenditures for education and other activities benefitting agriculture
and other public welfare."

Other assistance to agriculture the
governor pointed out probably will
come in the form of reclamation of
cutover and burned lands and easing
of the debt burden resultant from drainage projects. The legislature
may be asked to take steps to aid
Lake of the Woods and Beltrami
counties, which will be forced to default ditch bonds unless helped.

South—Minnesota was also hit
by the drainage projects, Governor Christianson said. "There the heavy
assessments have seriously embarrassed the farmer during this period
of economic stress. It probably will be necessary to enact legislation
to enable counties to spread the assessment after refinancing, so that
the annual burden on the farmers

100 COMMUNISTS KILLED IN BATTLING CHINESE NATIONALISTS

Hong Kong, Nov. 15.—(UP)—One
hundred communists were killed and
more than 200 taken prisoners in a
two day battle with nationalists, advocates of Hong Kong said today.

The battle began at Seklong City
in the Fayuen district.

The communists have had a strong-
hold there for more than a year and
recently the radical leader was ordered to retreat to Chingoi, from where he was routed.

Assert Legislature and Court's Action Have Menaced Constitutional Rights of Free Speech

PUBLISHERS ASSOCIATION IN RESOLUTION

RECTED AT MINNESOTA LAW

WAS SILENCED

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 15.—(UP)—
Action by the Minnesota legislature
and state courts has menaced the
constitutional guarantees of free
speech, the American Newspaper Publishers Association declared today in a vigorously condemnatory
resolution adopted during the closing hours of the associations' convention.

The publishers' protest was directed
at a Minnesota law passed in 1925
under the terms of which the newspaper, Saturday Press, of Minneapolis, was silenced by an injunction.
The case was carried to the state
supreme court and the injunction
was sustained.

It was explained that the Saturday
Press was not a member of the association. The paper, the United Press
was informed, undertook to expose
inactivity and connivance on the
part of police and public officials.

"Without due process of civil and criminal laws intended for such purpose," the association said, "it is alleged that the officials attacked, proceeded under a Minnesota law to obtain an injunction restraining the
publishers not only from the publication of such articles but also restraining them from publishing their
paper."

"The publishers of the Saturday
Press have been joined by counsel of the Chicago Tribune in an effort to vacate the injunction and declare
unconstitutional the law which
places with a single tribunal, with-
out trial by jury, the right to enjoin
a publication from its activities and
the right to declare, without proper
review and process of law, that any
publication or its contents are 'malicious, scandalous and defamatory.'"
If necessary the case will go to the supreme court.

It was explained that the association acted without comment on the merits of this particular case.

The Minnesota law provides that
it shall be a nuisance to publish any
matter which a court holds to be defamatory or malicious. In expressing disapproval of the law and its application in Minnesota, the association resolved:

"1. Freedom of speech, whether written or oral, is the bedrock foundation of free government.

"2. The action of the Minnesota
legislature and courts, if permitted
to stand, will render all guarantees of free speech valueless in Minnesota

HOOVER ELECTION HAS GOOD EFFECT ON BUSINESS

Washington, Nov. 15.—(UP)—
The election of Herbert Hoover
has had a good effect on business
in general, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon said today in a press conference.

He said business is proceeding to expand, realizing policies of the Coolidge administration are to continue.

KILLS DAUGHTER, BOMBS HOUSE OF HIS NEIGHBOR

STEPHEN SPARACINO OF SAN
FRENZY

SEARCH

San Jose, Calif., Nov. 15.—(UP)—
Stephen Sparacino, who yesterday
terrorized a neighborhood when in a
mad frenzy he killed his daughter
and bombed a neighbor's house, still
was at large today despite a statewide search.

Using four bombs, containing
about 80 sticks of dynamite and a
shotgun for his weapons, Sparacino
invaded the section of the city where
his estranged wife and daughter
lived.

He entered the home of his wife,
killed his 20-year-old daughter, Agie,
with the shotgun and a few moments
later tossed a bomb into the home
of James Di Flora. The blast shook
the whole neighborhood.

Police arrive in time to extinguish
the fuse on another bomb thrown on
the porch of Sam Olivera, a second
neighbor.

LUMBER HOOKER IN DISTRESS

COAST

New York, Nov. 15.—(UP)—The
Radio Marine Corporation at 5:45
A. M. today reported the steamer
Cristobal had announced interception of distress signals from the schooner Anna R. Heidritter. There
was no indication of the extent of
the schooner's danger.

The Anna R. Heidritter is a four-masted 640-ton vessel owned by the Heidritter Lumber Company. Its
port of registry is Newark, N. J.

The position given in the Radio
Marine report would place the schooner about 250 miles off the Carolina coast.

'PARTING DAY' AT ANNUAL JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SHOW

SEMBLE AT STOCKYARDS
FOR SALE

AUCTION BLOCK

South St. Paul, Nov. 15.—(UP)—
With the last prize awarded and the
last proud parade to the judging
pavilion ended, today was "parting"
day at the annual junior livestock
show here.

Early morning buyers began to
assemble at the stockyards for the sale of the calves, swine, lambs and poultry. All of the animals were to be sold on the auction block beginning at 9 A. M.

The 700 4-H club members, boys
and girls who won first prizes with
their entries in district meets
throughout the state brought their exhibits here, were preparing to
leave for their homes in every section of Minnesota. They left with
the memory of a banquet last night
brightest in their recollection of the
most successful junior livestock show
in its 11 years of history.

The program following the dinner
included vaudeville acts, music and
the presentation of prizes. Chief speaker was F. W. Peck, director of the agricultural extension service of the University of Minnesota.

Judging at the show Wednesday
was devoted to market hogs and fat
lambs.

The grand champion hog award
went to a Chester White entered by
Carl Larson, Chokio, Stevens county.
The reserve champion Barrow award
was given to Eldon Springer, Winne-
bago, Faribault county.

The Shropshire entered by Lois
Padellford, Austin, Mower county,
won the grand championship lamb
ribbon.

FINED $100 AND COSTS ON CHARGES OF BLASPHEMY

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 15.—(UP)—
Charles Smith, New York, president of the American Association for
the Advancement of Atheism, was sentenced to 90 days in jail and
fined $100 and costs on charges of blasphemy in municipal court here
today.

Smith was granted an appeal to the Ulaski county circuit court by Judge Harper E. Harb, who passed
sentence. His appeal bond was fixed
at $1,000 and Smith's attorney, Walter M. Purvis, said it would be made
at once.

York with a cargo of lumber and a crew of nine men.

Owners of the vessel said they understood a coast guard cutter had put off from Savannah to give assistance.

GOVERNOR SMITH TO VACATION IN MISSISSIPPI

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 15.—(UP)—
Governor Alfred E. Smith, Mississippi-bound for a vacation, arrived
here today for an overnight stay
as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Espy, close friends of the New York chief executive.

A crowd of 500 was at the station when the train to which the
private car carrying the Smith
party was attached pulled in at 8:10 a. m. Governor Smith was still asleep.

STORIES OF HEROISM AND OF SUFFERING

AND FOUNDERED

By LOUIS F. KEEMLE
New York, Nov. 15.—Stories of
heroism, of suffering and of tragedy
were continued today as the final
chapters in the sinking of the steamship Vestris were written.

Into New York, the port from
which the Vestris sailed on its voyage to South America last Saturday,
today had been brought 205 persons
who were miraculously saved from death when the Vestris listed and foundered.

The latest survivors to arrive here
57—eight passengers and 49 members of the crew—came in on the French oil tanker Myriam this morning.

It is believed only one group of survivors remain to reach port. It
is composed of those saved by the
battleship Wyoming which is steam-
ing toward Hampton Roads. Reports
say that eight survivors are aboard
the Wyoming and advices to Washington said many of them needed
hospital care.

That will bring the total of rescued to 213. The rest of that passenger and crew personnel of 327
persons are missing and few persons
believe any will be found alive.
Eight bodies have been brought into
New York by coast guard vessels and
at least eleven other bodies are on
other coast guard crafts.

The Wyoming should reach
Hampton Roads by 3 P. M., the navy department announced and that will mean all the known survivors are
safe.

Then the investigations into cause
of the disaster will begin. United States District Attorney Tuttle has announced he will start taking testimony at 2 P. M. today under a United States law which prohibits taking an unseaworthy vessel from port.

David A. Cook, representative of the New York agents of the Lamport
and Holt lines, announced an investigation would start as soon as possible while in London a representative of the board of trade said an investigation was under consideration.
There was a sameness to the stories
told by the survivors brought in this
morning from the Myriam—a sameness
that corresponded to the stories
told by survivors who arrived on the American Shipper and Berlin yesterday.

They told of the list of the 10,000
ton ship, of the great waves, of the
mad confusion after "to the life-
boats" had been shouted, of the
scramble in the water to get into
the life boats, of the inrush of sea
into the hold and engine room, of the final lurch which took down the Vestris and its captain, William J.
Carey, who chose to go down with
his vessel.

No one tried to explain the cause
of the disaster. Some of the seamen
blamed the captain for not giving an SOS earlier.

The first person to walk off the Myriam was Mrs. Cline Slaughter of Chicago, whose husband, rescued by
the American Shipper, awaited her
at the East River pier in Brooklyn.
She had reached safety on her twenty-
first birthday.

"It was terrible," she told the
newspapermen concerning the sinking of the Vestris.

"I was never worried until we started to get into the lifeboats on

TEXAS

AIRPLANE

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 15.—
(UP)—The six soldiers killed yesterday when a transport plane crashed
near here, were trapped in the cabin
by folds of an open parachute, an investigation of the wrecked biplane
revealed today.

Two men leaped free of the falling plane and floated to safety in
their parachutes. They were Lieut.
Harvey F. Dyer, pilot, of Beverly,
Kas., and Sergt. Frank J. Siebenaler
of Milwaukee.

The cabin doors were blocked by
the opened parachute, which apparently was opened too soon by one of the soldiers.

Lieutenant Dyer said the big
plane went out of control at an altitude of 3,000 feet. He said he shouted to the men to jump. Then
he and Siebenaler, in open seats,
leaped.

Wing fittings of the plane, investigating officers said, broke, causing
the ship to get out of control. Shortly after the two men had leaped, the
right wing broke from the plane and
fell.

Lieutenant Dyer is one of the pilots
who carried mail for President Cool-
idge when the president was vacationing in the Black Hills two years
ago.

The six soldiers killed were:
Privates Niceford Villarrodri, Pu-
anta Cochabamba, Bolivia; Arthur
W. Hardesty, Lebanon Junction, Ky.;
Carl W. Harris, Winnisboro, Texas;
Harry W. Gaudin, Callander, Va.;
Deaner F. McClosky, Placid, Texas;
Irvin Self, Victor, Texas.

The victims of the accident had
volunteered to take the flight so that
six officers who were scheduled to engage in some flying time might attend a football game. The plane had made several flights during the day
and had performed well.

Major S. W. Fitzgerald, commandant of the field, said he had no idea
as to what caused the accident but promised a full investigation. Other officers said the transport had no
false bottom which opens in case of
a crash and drops its occupants out.

Had the plane been equipped with
a false bottom the men might have
saved themselves with their para-chutes after being dropped free of
the cabin.

HOME OF HOSIERY COMPANY HEAD WRECKED BY BOMB

MARKS 21ST BOMBING IN STRIKE
OF KNITTERS AT KENOSHA,
WISCONSIN

DAMAGE DONE BY LATEST
EXPLOSION

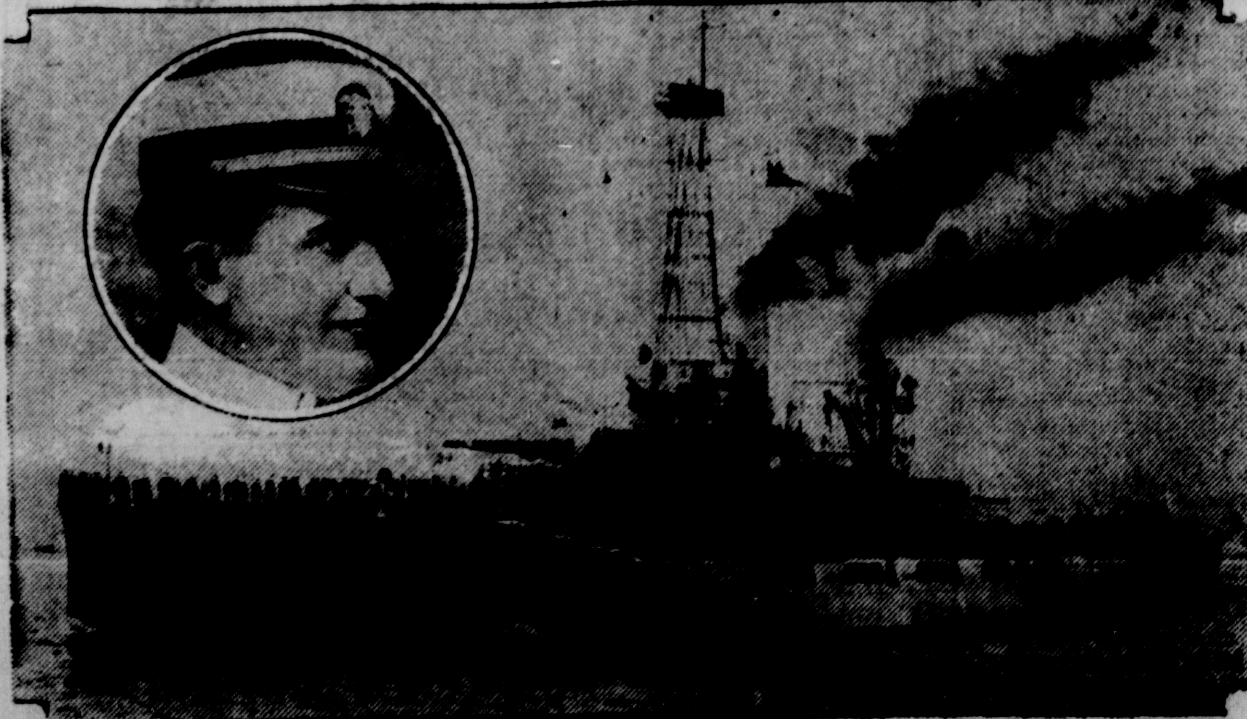

Lake Geneva, Wis., Nov. 15.—(UP)—
The home of Roger Kimball, vice-president of the Allen A. Hosiery
Company, was bombed here last
night, marking the twenty-first
bombing in the strike of knitters at
the hosiery mills in Kenosha, Wis.

Several thousand dollars in damage was done to the home by the explosion and fire that followed, Kimball estimated. The Kimball home
was one of the show places in the
wealthy colony three miles across the
lake from here.

The Kenosha Chamber of Commerce has asked a grand jury investigation and a decision is scheduled Tuesday.
The trouble at the mills
No one was in the Kimball home at
the time of the explosion.

Kimball said he had received a score or more threats by mail and

Steamed to Rescue of S. S. Vestris

SONALLY

"HIGH HAT" ATMOSPHERE
FROM HIS TOUR

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Palo Alto, Calif., Nov. 15.—President-elect Hoover hopes to establish
through his Latin-American tour the
neighborly custom of an exchange of
visits between the heads of those
countries and the United States.

To that end, he will invite officials
in the various Central and South
American countries he visits to come
to the United States as the guests of
the nation during his administration
as president, it was learned today.

These invitations will be extended
touch.

Hoover wants to remove all "high
hat" atmosphere from his visit. He
has requested the state department
that he go as a private citizen instead of as official representative of
the United States. He has decided to take Mrs. Hoover along with him.

Mrs. Hoover will be accompanied
by her private secretary, Miss Ruth Fessler, of Duluth, Minn., who like
the president-elect and Mrs. Hoover,
is a graduate of Stanford University.
These two will be the only women
aboard the battleship Maryland.

Their presence will be contrary to
established custom in the American
navy, but exceptions have been made.
Hoover's idea in inviting officials
of Latin-American nations to visit
the United States while he is president goes beyond his own administration in purpose. He would like
heads of the various countries in the
western hemisphere to visit one an-
for centuries.

Hoover has broadened the scope of
his tour to include a visit to Nicaragua, as it was indicated several
days ago by the United Press. With
make a personal appearance in the
two countries below the Rio Grande
in which most ill feeling against the United States has been shown in recent years.

Cordial invitations have come from
other Central American countries but
no decision has yet been reached as
president-elect may visit Guatemala.
The only stops provided in the ten-
tentative southward itinerary to Val-
paraiso, Chile, besides Managua,
Nicaragua, are Balboa, in the Canal

Invitations from Colombia, Ecuador and Bolivia still are under consideration.
The itinerary will be flexible and
to Hoover's assistant, George Aker-
son. Additional stops may be decided upon while enroute, he explained.

MURDER

THEY CONFESS TO THIS AND AN-

Chicago, Nov. 15.—(UP)—Within
fifteen minutes after three negroes
held up and killed a druggist here
last night, they were captured, had
confessed to that killing and an-
ders.

Peter Lucas, 45, was killed last
night in his South State street drug
Swan, 22; Napoleon Glover, 19, and Van Dontaerax, 22, when he offered
resistance.

A squad of police was on the trail
in a few minutes and ran down the three in an apartment house. After a brief gun battle the three negroes
Lucas.

At the police station they admitted killing Mathew Luck, negro, in a drug store held up last Sunday

CHRISTIANSON FOR HIGHER GAS TAX IN STATE

St. Paul, Nov. 15.—(UP)—Govern-
or Theodore Christianson yesterday
declared himself in favor of an increase in the state gasoline tax as a
means of continuing the trunk high-
way program.

The governor, in his first official
statement since election to a third
burden of highway maintenance up-
on those who use the roads most.

pronounced firm opposition to any
efforts to amend the state reorganization act at the cost of economy
policies and indicated measures
through which the coming legislature
may render further aid to agricultural sections of the state.

Concerning the adoption of amend-
ment No. 1, the governor pointed out
that diversion of one-third of the
gas tax revenues, as provided by the
amendment, threatens the general
highway program.

"I believe adoption of the amendment will make it necessary to increase the gasoline tax," the governor said. "This tax, I believe, is the
fairest tax imposed since it places
roads most."

The statement followed that of C.
M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, last week that the tax would
four cents.

Proposed creation of a state department of conservation is the only
major measure that looms at the
of the state reorganization act, the
governor explained.

"Such a department was originally
proposed in the reorganization of
the state government, so the proposal now amounts to resubmission
of the plan," he said. "The reor-
of Minnesota money, and at the
same time has permitted increased
expenditures for education and other
activities benefitting agriculture
and other public welfare."

Other assistance to agriculture the
come in the form of reclamation of
of the debt burden resultant from
drainage projects. The legislature
may be asked to take steps to aid
Lake of the Woods and Beltrami
counties, which will be forced to de-
fault ditch bonds unless helped.

Southern Minnesota was also hit
by the drainage projects, Governor
Christianson said. "There the heavy
assessments have seriously embarrassed the farmer during this period
of economic stress. It probably
will be necessary to enact legislation
to enable counties to spread the as-
the annual burden on the farmers

100 COMMUNISTS KILLED IN BATTLES CHINESE NATIONALISTS

Hong Kong, Nov. 15.—(UP)—One
hundred communists were killed and
more than 200 taken prisoners in a
two day battle with nationalists, advocates of Hong Kong said today.

The battle began at Sektong City
in the Fayuen district.

The communists have had a strong-
hold there for more than a year and
recently the radical leader was ordered to retreat to Chingol, from

PUBLISHERS ASSOCIATION IN RESOLUTION

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 15.—(UP)—
Action by the Minnesota legislature
and state courts has menaced the
constitutional guarantees of free
speech, the American Newspaper
Publishers Association declared to-
day in a vigorously condemnatory
resolution adopted during the closing hours of the associations' convention.

at a Minnesota law passed in 1925
under the terms of which the news-
paper, Saturday Press, of Minneapolis, was silenced by an injunction.
The case was carried to the state
was sustained.

It was explained that the Saturday
Press was not a member of the association. The paper, the United Press
was informed, undertook to expose
inactivity and connivance on the
part of police and public officials.

criminal laws intended for such purpose," the association said, "it is alleged that the officials attacked, proceeded under a Minnesota law to obtain an injunction restraining the
publishers not only from the publication of such articles but also re-
paper."

"The publishers of the Saturday
Press have been joined by counsel of
unconstitutional the law which
places with a single tribunal, with-
out trial by jury, the right to enjoin
a publication from its activities and
the right to declare, without proper
review and process of law, that any
icious, scandalous and defamatory.'
If necessary the case will go to the supreme court."

It was explained that the associa-
merits of this particular case.

The Minnesota law provides that
it shall be a nuisance to publish any
matter which a court holds to be defamatory or malicious. In express-
ing disapproval of the law and its
application in Minnesota, the association resolved:

"1. Freedom of speech, whether written or oral, is the bedrock foundation of free government.

"2. The action of the Minnesota
legislature and courts, if permitted
to stand, will render all guarantees
of free speech valueless in Minnesota

SEARCH

San Jose, Calif., Nov. 15.—(UP)—
Stephen Sparacino, who yesterday
terrorized a neighborhood when in a
mad frenzy he killed his daughter
and bombed a neighbor's house, still
was at large today despite a state-
wide search.

about 80 sticks of dynamite and a
shotgun for his weapons, Sparacino
invaded the section of the city where
his estranged wife and daughter
lived.

He entered the home of his wife,
killed his 20-year-old daughter, Agie,
with the shotgun and a few moments
later tossed a bomb into the home
of James Di Flora. The blast shook
the whole neighborhood.

the fuse on another bomb thrown on
the porch of Sam Olivera, a second
neighbor.

LUMBER HOOKER IN DISTRESS

MILES OFF CAROLINA

New York, Nov. 15.—(UP)—The
Radio Marine Corporation at 5:45
A. M. today reported the steamer
Cristobal had announced interception of distress signals from the
schooner Anna R. Heidritter. There
was no indication of the extent of
the schooner's danger.

The Anna R. Heidritter is a four-
masted 640-ton vessel owned by the Heidritter Lumber Company. Its
port of registry is Newark, N. J.
The position given in the Radio
Carolina coast.

'PARTING DAY' AT ANNUAL JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SHOW

AUCTION BLOCK

South St. Paul, Nov. 15.—(UP)—
With the last prize awarded and the
show here.

Early morning buyers began to
assemble at the stockyards for the
sale of the calves, swine, lambs and
be sold on the auction block beginning at 9 A. M.

The 700 4-H club members, boys
their entries in district meets
throughout the state brought their
exhibits here, were preparing to
leave for their homes in every section of Minnesota. They left with
the memory of a banquet last night
brightest in their recollection of the
most successful junior livestock show
in its 11 years of history.

The program following the dinner
included vaudeville acts, music and
the presentation of prizes. Chief
speaker was F. W. Peck, director of
the agricultural extension service of
the University of Minnesota.

Judging at the show Wednesday
was devoted to market hogs and fat
lambs.

The grand champion hog award
Carl Larson, Chokio, Stevens county.
The reserve champion Barrow award
was given to Eldon Springer, Winne-

The Shropshire entered by Lois
Padelford, Austin, Mower county,
ribbon.

Charles Smith, New York, president of the American Association for
the Advancement of Atheism, was
sentenced to 90 days in jail and
fined $100 and costs on charges of
blasphemy in municipal court here
today.

Smith was granted an appeal to the Ulaski county circuit court by Judge Harper E. Harb, who passed
sentence. His appeal bond was fixed
at $1,000 and Smith's attorney, Walter M. Purvis, said it would be made
at once.

GOVERNOR SMITH TO VACATION IN MISSISSIPPI

Governor Alfred E. Smith, Mississippi-bound for a vacation, arrived
here today for an overnight stay
as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Espey, close friends of the New York chief executive.

A crowd of 500 was at the station when the train to which the
private car carrying the Smith
party was attached pulled in at 8:10 a. m. Governor Smith was
still asleep.

AND FOUNDERED

By LOUIS F. KEEMLE

New York, Nov. 15.—Stories of
heroism, of suffering and of tragedy
were continued today as the final
chapters in the sinking of the steam-
ship Vestris were written.

Into New York, the port from
which the Vestris sailed on its voy-
age to South America last Saturday,
today had been brought 205 persons
who were miraculously saved from
death when the Vestris listed and
foundered.

The latest survivors to arrive here
57—eight passengers and 49 members of the crew—came in on the French oil tanker Myriam this morning.

It is believed only one group of
is composed of those saved by the
ing toward Hampton Roads. Reports
say that eight survivors are aboard
the Wyoming and advices to Washington said many of them needed
hospital care.

That will bring the total of rescued to 213. The rest of that pas-
senger and crew personnel of 327
persons are missing and few persons
believe any will be found alive.
Eight bodies have been brought into
New York by coast guard vessels and
at least eleven other bodies are on
other coast guard crafts.

The Wyoming should reach
Hampton Roads by 3 P. M., the navy
department announced and that will
safe.

Then the investigations into cause
of the disaster will begin. United States District Attorney Tuttle has
announced he will start taking testimony at 2 P. M. today under a United States law which prohibits
taking an unseaworthy vessel from
port.

David A. Cook, representative of
the New York agents of the Lamport
and Holt lines, announced an investigation would start as soon as possible while in London a representative of the board of trade said an investigation was under consideration.

There was a sameness to the stories
told by the survivors brought in this
morning from the Myriam—a sameness
that corresponded to the stories
American Shipper and Berlin yester-
day.

They told of the list of the 10,000-
ton ship, of the great waves, of the
mad confusion after "to the life-
boats" had been shouted, of the
scramble in the water to get into
the life boats, of the inrush of sea
into the hold and engine room, of the
final lurch which took down the Vestris and its captain, William J.
his vessel.

No one tried to explain the cause
of the disaster. Some of the seamen
blamed the captain for not giving an
SOS earlier.

The first person to walk off the Myriam was Mrs. Cline Slaughter of Chicago, whose husband, rescued by
the American Shipper, awaited her
at the East River pier in Brooklyn.
She had reached safety on her twenty-
first birthday.

"It was terrible," she told the
newspapermen concerning the sinking of the Vestris.

"I was never worried until we
started to get into the lifeboats on

TEXAS

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 15.—
(UP)—The six soldiers killed yester-
day when a transport plane crashed
near here, were trapped in the cabin
by folds of an open parachute, an
investigation of the wrecked biplane
revealed today.

Two men leaped free of the falling plane and floated to safety in
their parachutes. They were Lieut.
Harvey F. Dyer, pilot, of Beverly,
Kas., and Sergt. Frank J. Siebenaler
of Milwaukee.

The cabin doors were blocked by
the opened parachute, which apparently was opened too soon by one of
the soldiers.

Lieutenant Dyer said the big
plane went out of control at an altitude of 3,000 feet. He said he shouted to the men to jump. Then
he and Siebenaler, in open seats,
leaped.

Wing fittings of the plane, investigating officers said, broke, causing
the ship to get out of control. Shortly
after the two men had leaped, the
right wing broke from the plane and
fell.

Lieutenant Dyer is one of the pilots
who carried mail for President Cool-
idge when the president was vacationing in the Black Hills two years
ago.

The six soldiers killed were:
Privates Nieceford Villarod, Pu-
anta Cochabamba, Bolivia; Arthur
W. Hardesty, Lebanon Junction, Ky.;
Carl W. Harris, Winnisboro, Texas;
Harry W. Gauldin, Calander, Va.;
Deaner F. McClosky, Placid, Texas;
Irvin Self, Victor, Texas.

The victims of the accident had
volunteered to take the flight so that
six officers who were scheduled to engage in some flying time might attend a football game. The plane had
made several flights during the day
and had performed well.

Major S. W. Fitzgerald, command-
ant of the field, said he had no idea
as to what caused the accident but
promised a full investigation. Other
officers said the transport had no
false bottom which opens in case of
a crash and drops its occupants out.

a false bottom the men might have
saved themselves with their para-
chutes after being dropped free of
the cabin.

HOME OF HOSIERY COMPANY HEAD WRECKED BY BOMB

OF KNITTERS AT KENOSHA,
WISCONSIN

EXPLOSION

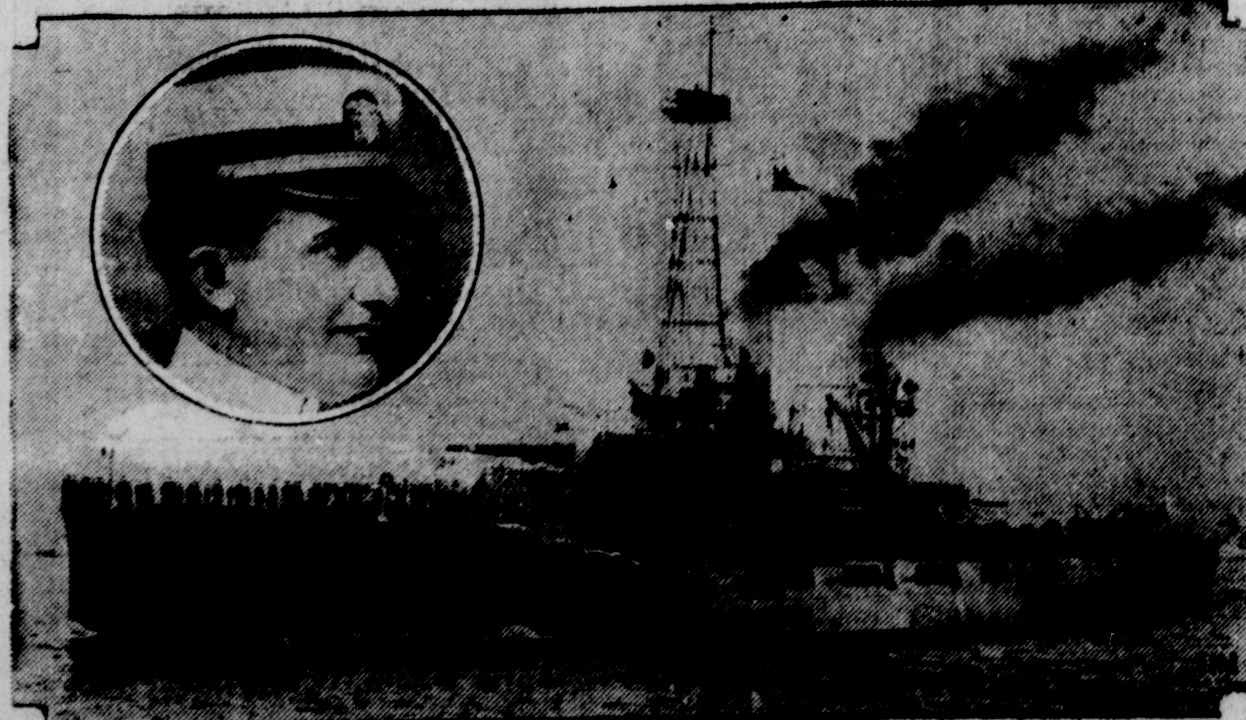

Lake Geneva, Wis., Nov. 15.—(UP)—
The home of Roger Kimball, vice-
president of the Allen A. Hosiery
Company, was bombed here last
night, marking the twenty-first
bombing in the strike of knitters at
the hosiery mills in Kenosha, Wis.

Several thousand dollars in dam-
age was done to the home by the explosion and fire that followed, Kim-
ball estimated. The Kimball home
was one of the show places in the
lake from here.

The Kenosha Chamber of Commerce has asked a grand jury investigation of the trouble at the mills.
No one was in the Kimball home at
the time of the explosion.

Kimball said he had received a
score or more threats by mail and

The Seattle Daily Times records the recent marriage of Miss Jessie Seelye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Seelye, of Seattle, formerly of Brainerd, to Major T. Edwin Durham, which was solemnized at the home of her parents.

The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Mark Allison Matthews in the presence of a group of relatives and intimate friends before the fireplace, which was banked with chrysanthemums and Michaelmas daisies, lighted by tall tapers at either side.

The bride was very charming in her gown of deep ivory crepe, the bodice of which had a V neck and long tight sleeves and the skirt two circular tiers, which formed a longer drape in back. With it she wore a veil of old Limerick lace and carried a bouquet of cream roses, bouvardia and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Raymond W. Seelye, Jr., who was her only attendant, wore a frock of powder blue crepe chiffon and her bouquet was a shower of blush roses. Mrs. Seelye's gown was of dark blue transparent velvet and she wore a corsage of blush roses.

Mr. Seelye, Jr., the bride's brother, was best man.

Before the ceremony Miss Margaret Renshaw played Mendelssohn's "Lotus Bloom" and also the Lohengrin march.

For traveling Mrs. Durham wore a two-piece costume of brown velvet and crepe with a brown wrap with matching fox cuffs and a wood violet hat and corsage of orchids.

Major and Mrs. Durham will be at home in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, after November 1.

DURHAM-SEELYE

Miss Jessie Seelye, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Seelye, Becomes Bride

The Seattle Daily Times records the recent marriage of Miss Jessie Seelye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Seelye, of Seattle, formerly of Brainerd, to Major T. Edwin Durham, which was solemnized at the home of her parents.

The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Mark Allison Matthews in the presence of a group of relatives and intimate friends before the fireplace, which was banked with chrysanthemums and Michaelmas daisies, lighted by tall tapers at either side.

The bride was very charming in her gown of deep ivory crepe, the bodice of which had a V neck and long tight sleeves and the skirt two circular tiers, which formed a longer drape in back. With it she wore a veil of old Limerick lace and carried a bouquet of cream roses, bouvardia and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Raymond W. Seelye, Jr., who was her only attendant, wore a frock of powder blue crepe chiffon and her bouquet was a shower of blush roses.

Mrs. Seelye's gown was of dark blue transparent velvet and she wore a corsage of blush roses.

Mr. Seelye, Jr., the bride's brother, was best man.

Before the ceremony Miss Margaret Renshaw played Mendelssohn's "Lotus Bloom" and also the Lohengrin march.

For traveling Mrs. Durham wore a two-piece costume of brown velvet and crepe with a brown wrap with matching fox cuffs and a wood violet hat and corsage of orchids.

Major and Mrs. Durham will be at home in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, after November 1.

Fellowship Supper

The annual fellowship supper of the First Baptist church will be held tomorrow evening in the basement of the church. This will be served by the ladies aid and all of the members and friends of the church are urged to be present. There will be no charge for this. At this supper the annual Thanksgiving offering will be presented. The prayer meeting usually held on Thursday evening will be united with this for this week.

Whittier P. T. A. Hears Unusually
Good Musical Program at Meet-

CONFERENCE REPORT GIVEN

Discussion at Next Meet "Recreational Activities of Children of High School Age"

(Contributed)
The November meeting of the Whittier P. T. A. was distinguished
by an unusually good musical program. A mixed quartet—composed
of Mrs. A. W. Moulster, soprano,
Mrs. Charles Mahlum, alto, William
Anderson, tenor and Roy Putz, bass,
made its first public appearance in
the following group of songs:
"Sunrise and You"—Penn.
"Absence"—Metcalf.

The audience was convinced that BRAINERD is to be congratulated on
this addition to our musical organizations. While all four voices are known and recognized as among the
finer ones of the city, no one has
previously been given an opportunity to judge of how well they balance and blend. Mrs. Louis Knud-
son displayed her marked ability as
an accompanist for these numbers,
and also for the two delightful love-
songs, "Out of the Dusk to You,"
and "When I'm With You," which
are admirably suited to Mrs. J. H.
Krekelberg's clear, sweet soprano.
Mrs. Louis Johnson played a violin
solo, "Les Adieux," by Sarasate, with
feeling and clarity, sympathetically
accompanied on the piano by her husband.

Dr. Grace E. Williams gave a comprehensive report of the state
conference at St. Cloud, which she characterized as one of the richest
and "heaviest" in her somewhat
wide experiences of conferences in general. She exhibited excellent judgment in choosing, from such a wealth of material, those subjects of
greatest interest to her audience.

and presented them with conciseness
and charm. Miss Mary Walsh, in her own inimitable manner, gave a supplementary report, chuckling over
the daring displayed by one of the outstanding speakers. "She said
things about parents we teachers
would never dare say to you." It was stressed by many of the conference-speakers that the need of the
hour is for parents trained for their work, as all teachers are now required to be for theirs.

The topic chosen for discussion at
the December meeting is "Recreational Activities of Children of High School Age." It should be borne in mind that the P. T. A. societies properly should interest themselves in the problems of this age, as well as in those of grade-school and preschool ages. All parents of the district who are interested in this question, should give some thought to
it, and appear at our next meeting
to express themselves freely.

MAPLE GROVE

Many young folks attended the
dance at Pine Center Saturday night.
All report a good time.

Now that election is over the men
folks are busy exchanging deer
stories.

Arthur Segler, Norval Mohl, Ever-
ede Rau and Melvin Heagen are hunting near Duluth.

Emil Erickson and a party of
friends hunted near Cross Lake over
the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ackermann
spent Sunday and Monday at the Harold Rau home.

Miss Marie Dwyer returned to Minneapolis Sunday.

Roy Weidewitz visited at his home over the week end. He returned to Iowa Tuesday morning.

Miss Agnes Barto spent the week end at her home.

The surprise party on Frank Hettner Monday night was largely attended, the occasion being his birth-
day.

Wm. Binghamton has his three week's vacation now and is spending
them hunting. Wm. Rau is substitute carrier.

MINNEAPOLIS WOMAN GETS DEER

Shoots Animal Through Heart as It
Races Toward
Her

HUNTED AT REMER

Miss Rose Joncas Accompanied by Former Deputy Game Warden,
Miss Stukel

Miss Rose Joncas of Minneapolis
shot a deer through the heart as the
animal swept down on her, emerging from the thick woods, near Rem-
er. She had occupied a seat on a stump several hours, awaiting the approach of game.

Her friend, Miss Florence Stukel,
former lady game warden at Emily,
was a companion of Miss Joncas and
was engaged in the prosaic job of
tramping through the woods and
driving the game to where Miss Joncas sat.

Just before she killed the deer,
Miss Joncas had the terrifying sensation of having a big buck come within a few feet of her. The animal had approached from the rear
and before the Minneapolis woman
could swing her gun into position,
the animal believed to weigh almost 300 pounds had bolted through the woods and to safety.

Miss Joncas was quite handicapped
in her hunting experiences. She had turned her ankle and went into the woods with her cane in one hand and
the gun in the other.

The ladies came through Brainerd
yesterday with the deer on the running board of their car. Miss Stukel
has resigned as a deputy game warden. Miss Joncas is a relative of
George and T. H. Schaefer.

Set Era in Journalism

In 1833, Horace Greeley, Francis V.
Story and H. D. Shepard started the Morning Post in New York city. It failed in three weeks, but is said to have been the first two-cent daily ever published.

District 30 Basket Social
There will be basket social and program Friday, November 16, at School District 30, the first school on Thirteenth street near Echo Stock Farm. Ladies are asked to bring baskets.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement, also for the beautiful floral offerings.

HUNTERS KILL 400 LB. BEAR

HUNT NEAR COLERAINE

Hutchinson Party Finds Hunting
Good; One Bullet Through
Heart Kills Bear

Walter Ripjoe and Dr. Lurs, of Hutchinson passed through Brainerd
yesterday on their way home from Coleraine where they were successful in killing a deer and a large
black bear that weighed over 400
pounds.

One shot downed the large bear,
the bullet entering through the animal's heart. It was pushing its way through the underbrush to them
when stopped by the bullet.

On their way to the hunting
grounds near Coleraine while passing through Brainerd, the two hunters found a white gold wedding ring
on Laurel street. They brought the ring to the Brainerd Dispatch office
and it was later claimed by a bridegroom, who after losing it purchased
another that he might get married.

The finding of the wedding ring
was believed by the hunters to have brought them luck on their hunting
trip.

CLASS ENROLLS IN CITIZENSHIP

Nine Students Report at First Class Meeting in City
Hall

Prepare Residents of Foreign Nationality for Naturalization Test

A class of nine students of foreign nationality enrolled last night
under Miss Emma S. Brattvett in the citizenship night classes in the basement of the city hall. The next meeting of the class will be on Friday night at 7:30 o'clock. After
this week the class will meet the
same nights that it met last year,
Tuesdays and Thursdays. More students are expected to enroll this
year.

The purpose of this instruction is
to teach the pupils to read and write
the English language and prepare
them for naturalization as soon as
they are able to acquire the knowledge necessary to pass the examinations.

This class is a regular part of the public school organization and is under the direction of the state of Minnesota in the same way as the day
schools are directed by the state.

Both men and women are enrolled
in the class each year and whenever
the number of registrations appear
to warrant it, additional teachers are employed.

BLIND LAKE

Miss Aileen Anderson went to Brainerd last week to have glasses
fitted.

The Blind Lake town board met
at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van

Giffen Wednesday morning and went
to the telephone meeting in Long-
ville in the afternoon.

The ladies aid met with Mrs.
Julius Erickson last Wednesday.
There were nine adults and five children present. Three new members joined. The ladies aid will meet
with Mrs. Wickham next month.

Miss Alta Kimble of Backus visited with Miss Evelyn Fick all of last week. They called on Mrs. Emery Fick, near Pine River, Friday afternoon.

George Hines of St. Paul visited
in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard
Sweet from Friday afternoon until Saturday evening, and called on some
of the neighbors.

MIXED QUARTETTE
LAUDED FOR ART

Whittier P. T. A. Hears Unusually
Good Musical Program at Meet-

Discussion at Next Meet "Recreational Activities of Children of
High School Age
(Contributed)

The November meeting of the Whittier P. T. A. was distinguished
by an unusually good musical program. A mixed quartet—composed
of Mrs. A. W. Moulster, soprano,
Mrs. Charles Mahlum, alto, William
Anderson, tenor and Roy Putz, bass,
made its first public appearance in
the following group of songs:
"Sunrise and You"—Penn.
"Absence"—Metcalfe.

The audience was convinced that BRAINERD is to be congratulated on
this addition to our musical organizations. While all four voices are
known and recognized as among the
finer ones of the city, no one has
previously been given an opportunity to judge of how well they balance and blend. Mrs. Louis Knud-
son displayed her marked ability as
an accompanist for these numbers,
and also for the two delightful love-
songs, "Out of the Dusk to You,"
and "When I'm With You," which
are admirably suited to Mrs. J. H.
Krekelberg's clear, sweet soprano.
Mrs. Louis Johnson played a violin
solo, "Les Adieux," by Sarasate, with
feeling and clarity, sympathetically
accompanied on the piano by her
husband.

Dr. Grace E. Williams gave a comprehensive report of the state
conference at St. Cloud, which she
characterized as one of the richest
and "heaviest" in her somewhat
wide experiences of conferences in
general. She exhibited excellent
judgment in choosing, from such a
wealth of material, those subjects of
greatest interest to her audience,

and presented them with conciseness
and charm. Miss Mary Walsh, in
her own inimitable manner, gave a
supplementary report, chuckling over
the daring displayed by one of the
outstanding speakers. "She said
things about parents we teachers
could never dare say to you." It
was stressed by many of the conference-speakers that the need of the
hour is for parents trained for their work, as all teachers are now required to be for theirs.

The topic chosen for discussion at
the December meeting is "Recreational Activities of Children of High School Age." It should be borne in mind that the P. T. A. societies properly should interest themselves in the problems of this age, as well as in those of grade-school and preschool ages. All parents of the district who are interested in this question, should give some thought to
it, and appear at our next meeting
to express themselves freely.

Many young folks attended the
dance at Pine Center Saturday night.
All report a good time.

Now that election is over the men
folks are busy exchanging deer
stories.

Arthur Segler, Norval Mohl, Ever-
ede Rau and Melvin Heagen are
hunting near Duluth.

Emil Erickson and a party of
friends hunted near Cross Lake over
the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ackermann
spent Sunday and Monday at the Harold Rau home.

Miss Marie Dwyer returned to Minneapolis Sunday.

Roy Weidewitz visited at his
home over the week end. He returned to Iowa Tuesday morning.

Miss Agnes Barto spent the week
end at her home.

The surprise party on Frank Het-
ter Monday night was largely attended, the occasion being his birth-
day.

Wm. Binghamton has his three week's vacation now and is spending
them hunting. Wm. Rau is substitute carrier.

MINNEAPOLIS
WOMAN GETS DEER

Her

HUNTED AT REMER

Miss Rose Joncas Accompanied by Former Deputy Game Warden,
Miss Stukel

Miss Rose Joncas of Minneapolis
shot a deer through the heart as the
animal swept down on her, emerging from the thick woods, near Rem-
er. She had occupied a seat on a stump several hours, awaiting the
approach of game.

Her friend, Miss Florence Stukel,
former lady game warden at Emily,
was a companion of Miss Joncas and
was engaged in the prosaic job of
tramping through the woods and
driving the game to where Miss Joncas sat.

Just before she killed the deer,
Miss Joncas had the terrifying sensation of having a big buck come within a few feet of her. The animal had approached from the rear and before the Minneapolis woman
could swing her gun into position,
the animal believed to weigh almost 300 pounds had bolted through the
woods and to safety.

Miss Joncas was quite handicapped
in her hunting experiences. She had turned her ankle and went into the
woods with her cane in one hand and
the gun in the other.

The ladies came through Brainerd
yesterday with the deer on the running board of their car. Miss Stukel
has resigned as a deputy game wor-
den. Miss Joncas is a relative of
George and T. H. Schaefer.

Hutchinson Party Finds Hunting
Good; One Bullet Through

Walter Ripjoe and Dr. Lurs, of Hutchinson passed through Brainerd
yesterday on their way home from Coleraine where they were successful in killing a deer and a large
black bear that weighed over 400
pounds.

One shot downed the large bear,
the bullet entering through the ani-
mal's heart. It was pushing its way
through the underbrush to them
when stopped by the bullet.

On their way to the hunting
grounds near Coleraine while passing through Brainerd, the two hunters found a white gold wedding ring
on Laurel street. They brought the
ring to the Brainerd Dispatch office
and it was later claimed by a bride
groom, who after losing it purchased
another that he might get married.

The finding of the wedding ring
was believed by the hunters to have brought them luck on their hunting
trip.

Meeting in City
Hall

Prepare Residents of Foreign Nationality for Natural-
ization Test

A class of nine students of foreign nationality enrolled last night
under Miss Emma S. Brattvet in the citizenship night classes in the basement of the city hall. The next meeting of the class will be on Friday night at 7:30 o'clock. After
this week the class will meet the
same nights that it met last year,
Tuesdays and Thursdays. More stu-
year.

The purpose of this instruction is
to teach the pupils to read and write
the English language and prepare
them for naturalization as soon as
they are able to acquire the knowledge necessary to pass the examinations.

This class is a regular part of the
public school organization and is under the direction of the state of Minnesota in the same way as the day
schools are directed by the state.

Both men and women are enrolled
in the class each year and whenever
the number of registrations appear
to warrant it, additional teachers are employed.

BLIND LAKE

Miss Aileen Anderson went to Brainerd last week to have glasses
fitted.

The Blind Lake town board met
at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van

Giffen Wednesday morning and went
to the telephone meeting in Long-
ville in the afternoon.

The ladies aid met with Mrs.
Julius Erickson last Wednesday.
There were nine adults and five children present. Three new members
joined. The ladies aid will meet
with Mrs. Wickham next month.

Miss Alta Kimble of Backus visited with Miss Evelyn Flick all of last week. They called on Mrs. Emery Flick, near Pine River, Friday afternoon.

George Hines of St. Paul visited
in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard
Sweet from Friday afternoon until Saturday evening, and called on some
of the neighbors.

GREAT SAVING FOR HOUSEHOLDERS

EVERY householder in Minnesota has reason to be grateful to the League of Minnesota Municipalities for its effective action in combatting a proposed raise in residential insurance rates over the entire state, and in obtaining in addition an order decreasing those rates.

The saving amounted to over half a million dollars. As related in "Minnesota Municipalities," November issue, on June 18, 1928, an increase in fire insurance rates in Minnesota amounting in the aggregate to approximately $415,000 was announced suddenly by the fire insurance companies. Without general warning the rates became effective on the date announced. Almost immediately after publication, there was a state-wide protest from civic and business organizations and the press—a protest led for the most part by vigorous and well-informed municipal officials. Various municipalities entered objections.

Largely under the inspiration and leadership of Harry Phinney, city attorney of Morris and vice president of the League, a conference of the representatives of the municipalities and interested civic organizations was called at League headquarters on August 17. All cities and villages belonging to the League were informed of the happenings. It was soon agreed that the League should consolidate the isolated protests and submit a single brief to the Insurance Commissioner in the name of the interested cities and villages. By August 23 the controversy was officially before the State Fire Insurance Commissioner and all parties were anxiously awaiting the final decision.

On October 10 the decision was rendered in the clear-cut, concise terms of the Insurance Commissioner. He acted upon the facts presented and made available by both sides. Not only did he cross out the increase in insurance rates effective as of June 18, but also, and most significant, he reduced the rates existing at the time of the original announcement. This reduction amounted to $151,000. Hence a total saving of $566,000. Furthermore the new rates were made retroactive. This was a sweeping victory for the municipalities and for the civic organizations which had so energetically rushed to the fore. The League does not claim credit for the victory, but says it merely acted as a medium through which a vigorous and just protest could be convincingly presented.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT

THE presidential campaign this year was rather heated; there is no denying that fact, says the Princeton Union.

In the excitement of the campaign some enthusiastic supporters of one candidate or the other are inclined to forget that all of us cannot see the issues from the same standpoint, and that one group is acting from just as patriotic motives as is the other. Alvah Eastman of the St. Cloud Journal-Press well summed up the situation in the following editorial that appeared on October 31:

The American people as good citizens will accept the result of the election, as they always have, with good sportsmanship spirit. The victors, let us hope, will be modest and content with success without undue elation, and those who so valiantly supported the defeated candidate will yield to the majority decision with faith in the country and give to the next president that same support they would have expected of their political opponents, had the verdict been otherwise. After conditions have settled down, and we discover that after all we are citizens of one country, that whether the verdict be wise or unwise, that we shall be affected alike, either for good or ill. There has been too much intolerance by both sides, which had best be forgotten as soon as possible. After election we shall wonder why we became so excited, so unreasonable and why we did not sense that the millions supporting another candidate for president, were actuated by just as much loyalty and love of country as did the millions agreeing with us. There will be many more presidential campaigns, but let us hope they will not be tainted with so intense degree of intolerance and unreason as has been displayed by too many of both parties. When the nearly forty millions of men and women have cast their ballots, and elected the president for four years, we shall happily become better citizens and with greater good will to our neighbors.

N. P. RAILWAY USES TONS OF POTATOES

To supply the requirements of nearly a ton a day, the Northern Pacific dining car department has laid in its annual potato stock of nearly 350 tons, according to A. W. Thomson, superintendent of that department.

Of the supply about 250 tons are of the variety from which are prepared the big baked potatoes, which have gained a reputation on the railroad's dining cars. These potatoes are carefully selected in western Montana and Washington, principally in the Bitter Root and Yakima valleys.

The dining car department also is making provision to purchase two tons of turkeys for the Thanksgiving period. These turkeys will be purchased in Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Washington and Oregon.

METEOR SHOWER NOT SEEN

THE Leonid meteors which were to burst in showers near Leo, the Lion, last night, were not seen because clouds blanketed their action.

Following the news story as published in the Dispatch yesterday, many readers scanned the sky at midnight and later. At 1 a. m. nothing was seen of any meteors. A thin sheet of clouds was then forming and at 3 a. m. the sky was completely overcast, thus halting any chance to see any shooting stars.

As the burst of Leonid meteors occurs in cycles of 33 years, we shall have to wait until November, 1961, for another chance to observe their peregrinations.

PEOPLE WHO KILL A TOWN

PEOPLE who kill a town are of various kinds, says the Swift County Monitor. They include: Those who oppose improvements. Those who run it down to strangers. Those who never advertise their business. Those who distrust public-spirited men. Those who show no hospitality to anyone. Those who hate to see others make money. Those who oppose every improvement that doesn't originate with themselves. Those who put on an extra long face when a stranger talks of locating in their town. Those who oppose every public enterprise that does not appear of personal benefit to themselves.

ASSERT LEGISLATURE, COURT'S ACTION HAVE MENACED CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS FREE SPEECH

"Solely as citizens of the greatest democracy of all times, and not alone in our capacity as publishers, it is our inescapable duty to fight this deadly attack upon our institutions and government."

Minneapolis, Nov. 15—The attacks made in Norfolk, Va., by the American Publishers Association on the Minnesota laws of free speech were declared here today to be misguided and based on insufficient knowledge of conditions.

The Hennepin county attorney's office, from which the Saturday Press was prosecuted and restrained by an injunction from publication, declared that the publishers were apparently not aware of the type of sheet which was printed by The Press.

Assistant of County Attorney Floyd Olson declared in his absence that the Minnesota laws were aimed not at legitimate newspapers but at those which persisted in the publication of malicious, scandalous and defamatory type of news.

The state supreme court, the attorney's office pointed out, not only upheld the constitutionality of the injunction law but strongly indicated that the Saturday Press was the type of paper at which the law was enforceable.

The Minnesota law was likened to

the laws of England on nuisances, which such authorities as Dean Roscoe Pound of Harvard has in effect recommended for America.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

CREOMULSION FOR THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

You can make $100 extra
TODAY!

Your present car is worth more to you today than it was worth a month ago, and at least $100 more than it will be worth in another month or so.

On that basis, buying your new car now is like finding money. It means you can have the pleasure and comfort of a new car at once, and save real money by doing so. Plainly, then, you can't afford to wait.

GREAT SAVING FOR HOUSEHOLDERS

EVERY householder in Minnesota has reason to be grateful to the League of Minnesota Municipalities for its effective action in combatting a proposed raise in residential insurance rates over the entire state, and in obtaining in addition an order decreasing those rates.

The saving amounted to over half a million dollars. As related in "Minnesota Municipalities," November issue, on June 18, 1928, an increase in fire insurance rates in Minnesota amounting in the aggregate to approximately $415,000 was announced suddenly by the fire insurance companies. Without general warning the rates became effective on the date announced. Almost immediately after publication, there was a state-wide protest from civic and business organizations and the press—a protest led for the most part by vigorous and well-informed municipal officials. Various municipalities entered objections.

Largely under the inspiration and leadership of Harry Phinney, city attorney of Morris and vice president of the League, a conference of the representatives of the municipalities and interested civic organizations was called at League headquarters on August 17. All cities and villages belonging to the League were informed of the happenings. It was soon agreed that the League should consolidate the isolated protests and submit a single brief to the Insurance Commissioner in the name of the interested cities and villages. By August 23 the controversy was officially before the State Fire Insurance Commissioner and all parties were anxiously awaiting the final decision.

On October 10 the decision was rendered in the clear-cut, concise terms of the Insurance Commissioner. He acted upon the facts presented and made available by both sides. Not only did he cross out the increase in insurance rates effective as of June 18, but also, and most significant, he reduced the rates existing at the time of the original announcement. This reduction amounted to $151,000. Hence a total saving of $566,000. Furthermore the new rates were made retroactive. This was a sweeping victory for the municipalities and for the civic organizations which had so energetically rushed to the fore. The League does not claim credit for the victory, but says it merely acted as a medium through which a vigorous and just protest could be convincingly presented.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT

THE presidential campaign this year was rather heated; there is no denying that fact, says the Princeton Union.

In the excitement of the campaign some enthusiastic supporters of one candidate or the other are inclined to forget that all of us cannot see the issues from the same standpoint, and that one group is acting from just as patriotic motives as is the other.

Alvah Eastman of the St. Cloud Journal-Press well summed up the situation in the following editorial that appeared on October 31:

The American people as good citizens will accept the result of the election, as they always have, with good sportsmanship spirit. The victors, let us hope, will be modest and content with success without undue elation, and those who so valiantly supported the defeated candidate will yield to the majority decision with faith in the country and give to the next president that same support they would have expected of their political opponents, had the verdict been otherwise. After conditions have settled down, and we discover that after all we are citizens of one country, that whether the verdict be wise or unwise, that we shall be affected alike, either for good or ill. There has been too much intolerance by both sides, which had best be forgotten as soon as possible. After election we shall wonder why we became so excited, so unreasonable and why we did not sense that the millions supporting another candidate for president, were actuated by just as much loyalty and love of country as did the millions agreeing with us. There will be many more presidential campaigns, but let us hope they will not be tainted with so intense degree of intolerance and unreason as has been displayed by too many of both parties. When the nearly forty millions of men and women have cast their ballots, and elected the president for four years, we shall happily become better citizens and with greater good will to our neighbors.

N. P. RAILWAY USES TONS OF POTATOES

To supply the requirements of nearly a ton a day, the Northern Pacific dining car department has laid in its annual potato stock of nearly 350 tons, according to A. W. Thomson, superintendent of that department.

Of the supply about 250 tons are of the variety from which are prepared the big baked potatoes, which have gained a reputation on the railroad's dining cars. These potatoes are carefully selected in western Montana and Washington, principally in the Bitter Root and Yakima valleys.

The dining car department also is making provision to purchase two tons of turkeys for the Thanksgiving period. These turkeys will be purchased in Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Washington and Oregon.

METEOR SHOWER NOT SEEN

THE Leonid meteors which were to burst in showers near Leo, the Lion, last night, were not seen because clouds blanketed their action.

Following the news story as published in the Dispatch yesterday, many readers scanned the sky at midnight and later. At 1 a. m. nothing was seen of any meteors. A thin sheet of clouds was then forming and at 3 a. m. the sky was completely overcast, thus halting any chance to see any shooting stars.

As the burst of Leonid meteors occurs in cycles of 33 years, we shall have to wait until November, 1961, for another chance to observe their peregrinations.

PEOPLE WHO KILL A TOWN

PEOPLE who kill a town are of various kinds, says the Swift County Monitor. They include: Those who oppose improvements. Those who run it down to strangers. Those who never advertise their business. Those who distrust public-spirited men. Those who show no hospitality to anyone. Those who hate to see others make money. Those who oppose every improvement that doesn't originate with themselves. Those who put on an extra long face when a stranger talks of locating in their town. Those who oppose every public enterprise that does not appear of personal benefit to themselves.

The Hennepin county attorney's office, from which the Saturday Press was prosecuted and restrained by an injunction from publication, declared that the publishers were apparently not aware of the type of sheet which was printed by The Press.

Assistants of County Attorney Floyd Olson declared in his absence that the Minnesota laws were aimed not at legitimate newspapers but at those which persisted in the publication of malicious, scandalous and defamatory type of news.

The state supreme court, the attorney's office pointed out, not only upheld the constitutionality of the injunction law but strongly indicated that the Saturday Press was the type of paper at which the law was enforceable.

The Minnesota law was likened to

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

DEMPSEY MAY MEET UZCUDUN OR SHARKEY NEXT SUMMER

BOUT TO BE HELD IN THE YANKEE STADIUM

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Nov. 15.—Jack Dempsey may meet Paulino Uzcudun or Jack Sharkey in a bout at Yankee Stadium next summer and the announcement of the former heavy-weight champion's return to the ring probably will be made after a conference with Tex Rickard at Miami Beach, Fla., in January.

Those are the paramount points which fight fans are taking for granted today after three days of conferences between Dempsey and Rickard.

"We have arranged for Dempsey to visit my place in Miami Beach," Rickard said after the last conference, "and shortly after his arrival I expect to be in position to say whether Dempsey will attempt another comeback. He doesn't know his own mind yet and there is still plenty of time for him to make it up one way or another."

Although everything points to Dempsey coming back again, the thing that is troubling both Rickard and Dempsey is that neither of them is sure the former champion can get himself into shape to meet a first rate contender.

Dempsey is 33, and began fighting in 1915. He has fought only three times since he knocked out Luis Firpo in 1923. Dempsey is overweight and out of shape now. He admits it himself.

A strong indication that Dempsey plans to enter training soon is provided by the fact that Gus Wilson, his former camp attendant, has arranged to close his Orangeburg, N. Y., training camp for the winter as a step toward rejoining Dempsey.

Dempsey will return to California the first of next week and may go into the hills and start training secretly.

"I don't know from day to day what I'm going to do," Dempsey said. "If I return to the ring, it will be for Rickard and on Rickard's terms."

Dempsey attended a banquet given by Paulino last night preparatory to the Basque's departure for Cali, Colombia, where he will meet Jack Renault, Canadian heavyweight, on December 26 at the South American Olympic games.

GOPHERS IN FIRST PRACTICE OF WEEK YESTERDAY

NAVY'S MOVE FOR TRUCE WITH ARMY GETS 'COLD SHOULDER'

New York, Nov. 15.—(UP)—The Navy's move to open negotiations for a truce with the Army has been given the "cold shoulder" by authorities of the United States Military academy.

Practically all chance of the two service academies meeting in football in 1929 or 1930 was removed yesterday when the West Point publicity department issued a statement saying all "key" games for both years have been filled.

"Because the contract for football games between the Army and the Navy was arbitrarily broken by the Navy, officers and cadets here are unable to understand why the Navy reserves a date for a football game or any other athletic activity for the Army," the statement read.

LACK OF FLOOR DELAYS START OF CAGE PRACTICE

OPENING GAME NOT ONE MONTH AWAY; B. H. S. BOOKS 12 GAMES

With the first basketball game only one month away, the Brainerd high school faces a decided handicap in lack of facilities for practice.

Last year the candidates for the team which later took the district championship and made a creditable showing at the regional were drilled for the opening of the season before November 15. Lack of a floor, still undecided, will delay the opening of the practice season.

Some fans have the opinion that Brainerd can take first or second place in the district in conference games without practice but it must be remembered that a team never wins on its past laurels. Even though there are six lettermen available for this year's team, it will require just as strenuous a practice season as under normal conditions, in order to have a winning team.

Brainerd to date has twelve games to be played out of the city. This in itself will be a strenuous task as trips wear down athletes to a certain extent.

Several places for practice have been looked over but conditions are such at present that it looks as though they will be unable to be used. Places that could be used will not be given over to the high school for this purpose.

The first game of the season will be played Friday, December 14. Other games include Staples January 11, Crosby-Ironton January 18, Little Falls January 25, St. Cloud January 26, Wadena February 1, Pine River February 8, Crosby-Ironton February 15, Aitkin February 22, Little Falls March 1.

Dates with Bemidji and Motley have not been definitely decided upon yet.

CENTER

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Borden who have been visiting with their relatives have returned to their home in Milwaukee, Wis., Saturday.

Several of the farmers are taking advantage of the warm weather and doing their fall plowing.

Melvin Stropp is serving on the jury in Brainerd.

George Passe of Hammond, Minn., visited with old neighbors in Center last Saturday on his way deer hunting in the northern part of the county.

Mr. Passe was former owner of the Bollins Ranch.

John Geisinger is plowing with two tractors on his farm south of Brainerd this week.

Nels Christianson of Merrifield was a caller in Center last week.

W. L. Buttler was a Brainerd caller last week.

Mrs. J. W. Chenney returned to her home last Monday after spending a couple of weeks with her son in Mason City, Iowa.

A number of neighbors attended a wedding reception for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Borden. They received many nice presents.

E. E. Taylor hauled a couple of loads of logs to Sabin's saw mill in Mission Tuesday.

Several of the neighbors helped Art Feilerabend shingle his barn last Thursday, completing the job in one day.

Mrs. Jane Borden and son, Wendell, were Brainerd callers Friday.

MINNESOTA TO PLAY HASKELL ON SATURDAY

THE REGULAR BACKFIELD IS TO START AGAINST THE INDIANS

Minneapolis, Nov. 15.—Minnesota regulars went through their first practice of the week yesterday. The Gophers meet Haskell Saturday and close the season with Wisconsin the following week. The regular backfield — Nagurski, Pharmer, Hovde and Brockmeyer—will start against the Indians.

Iowa City, Nov. 15.—A defense for Wisconsin's aerial attack is the chief concern in the Iowa football camp. Coach Ingwersen has been putting the varsity and freshmen through their paces all week in attack and defense for the passes Wisconsin is expected to use Saturday.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 15.—Harold Smith, fullback, is being groomed by the Badgers to offset Mayes McLain, Iowa's Indian flash. Smith, hurt earlier in the season, will be back in the game Saturday. He will alternate with Rehholz, a veteran and a great defensive player.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Burgess and Leyer, ranking backs of the University of Chicago's football team, will not be in the Illinois game on Saturday on account of injuries received in scrimmage.

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 15.—Defense against passes that are expected from the Chicago team Saturday has been the main object of practice this week for the Illini.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 15.—Notre Dame took another rest yesterday with the result that the Irish have only today and tomorrow to get acquainted with Carnegie Tech's tactics. While Rockne fears Tech's attack, he fears still more that his team will go stale after its strenuous schedule.

Evanston, Ill., Nov. 15.—After a light workout this afternoon, the Northwestern football team will depart for Bloomington, Ind., to meet the Hoosiers Saturday. The game will wind-up the Purple's season.

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 15.—Several injured veterans probably will be back in the Indiana line-up when it meets Northwestern. Captain

Bennett seems to be back in his old form and Matthew has returned to his post as guard.

ST. MATHIAS

Mr. and Mrs. A. DeRosier and children of Brainerd visited at Mrs. D. Flansburg's home Sunday.

Harry Anderson, Tom Dubois, Emilie Cole, John Miller, Jr., Ralph Reid and A. F. Claus were the men from St. Mathias that went deer hunting.

We are all glad to hear Mrs. M. Tautges is getting along just as good as can be expected after her operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bratt and children of Fort Ripley visited at the Reid home Sunday.

Claude Flansburg who is employed in Brainerd spent a week's vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Flansburg.

Dr. and Mrs. Del Maust of White Bear visited a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Magham last week.

Miss Rose Bossus is helping Mrs. Preston Caughey for a few weeks.

Frank Tougas and Page Brausseau called at the Gravel home Friday night. They were leaving Monday by car for Flint, Mich.

Marion and Evelina Kcoring visited their Grandma Kcoring Sunday afternoon.

There will be a card party at the John Miller, Sr., home Sunday evening, Nov. 18.

Frank Jordan and Irene Feringer were visitors at the Jordan home Sunday.

All are sorry to hear that Leo Magham hurt his hand while hulling clover. Hope it will be all right soon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Kcoring attended a card party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Coffey Thursday evening in Daggett Brook. Five hundred was played. A delicious supper was served.

Find Carlton Wood

Guilty of Manslaughter

Eldora, Ia., Nov. 15.—(UP)—A jury in district court today found Carlton Wood, Lyle, Minn., guilty of manslaughter in connection with the killing of U. D. Davis, Eldora attorney. Davis was shot during an argument with Wood last September.

A first degree murder indictment was returned against Wood by the county grand jury but the trial jury refused a verdict on the more serious charge. The jury deliberated from yesterday evening until this forenoon.

DEMPSEY MAY MEET UZCUDUN OR SHARKEY NEXT SUMMER

(United Press Staff Correspondent) New York, Nov. 15.—Jack Dempsey may meet Paulino Uzcudun or Jack Sharkey in a bout at Yankee Stadium next summer and the announcement of the former heavy-weight champion's return to the ring probably will be made after a conference with Tex Rickard at Miami Beach, Fla., in January.

Those are the paramount points which fight fans are taking for granted today after three days of conferences between Dempsey and Rickard.

"We have arranged for Dempsey to visit my place in Miami Beach," Rickard said after the last conference, "and shortly after his arrival I expect to be in position to say whether Dempsey will attempt another comeback. He doesn't know his own mind yet and there is still plenty of time for him to make it up one way or another."

Although everything points to Dempsey coming back again, the thing that is troubling both Rickard and Dempsey is that neither of them is sure the former champion can get himself into shape to meet a first rate contender.

Dempsey is 33, and began fighting in 1915. He has fought only three times since he knocked out Luis Firpo in 1923. Dempsey is overweight and out of shape now. He admits it himself.

A strong indication that Dempsey plans to enter training soon is provided by the fact that Gus Wilson, his former camp attendant, has arranged to close his Orangeburg, N. Y., training camp for the winter as a step toward rejoining Dempsey.

Dempsey will return to California the first of next week and may go into the hills and start training secretly.

"I don't know from day to day what I'm going to do," Dempsey said. "If I return to the ring, it will be for Rickard and on Rickard's terms."

Dempsey attended a banquet given by Paulino last night preparatory to the Basque's departure for Cali, Colombia, where he will meet Jack Renault, Canadian heavyweight, on December 26 at the South American Olympic games.

Someone asked Dempsey if he planned to come back again and he said he didn't know, but the former champion appeared elated when someone else remarked that "fighters can change their minds."

FINDLAY S. DOUGLAS SUCCEEDS TAYLOR AS HEAD OF U. S. GOLFERS

New York, Nov. 15.—(U.P.)—Findlay S. Douglas of New York will succeed Melvin A. Taylor of Chicago as president of the United States Golf association at the annual meeting in January. The nominating committee announced its report yesterday and the nominations amount to election.

Among the amateur golfers nominated for the executive committee is Harrison R. (Jimmy) Johnston of Minneapolis.

NAVY'S MOVE FOR TRUCE WITH ARMY GETS 'COLD SHOULDER'

New York, Nov. 15.—(U.P.)—The Navy's move to open negotiations for a truce with the Army has been given the "cold shoulder" by authorities of the United States Military academy.

Practically all chance of the two service academies meeting in football in 1924 or 1925 was removed yesterday when the West Point publicity department issued a statement saying all "key" games for both years have been filled.

LACK OF FLOOR DELAYS START OF CAGE PRACTICE

OPENING GAME NOT ONE MONTH AWAY; B. H. S. BOOKS 12 GAMES

With the first basketball game only one month away, the Brainerd high school faces a decided handicap in lack of facilities for practice.

Last year the candidates for the team which later took the district championship and made a creditable showing at the regional were drilled for the opening of the season before November 15. Lack of a floor, still undecided, will delay the opening of the practice season.

Some fans have the opinion that Brainerd can take first or second place in the district in conference games without practice but it must be remembered that a team never wins on its past laurels. Even though there are six lettermen available for this year's team, it will require just as strenuous a practice season as under normal conditions, in order to have a winning team.

Brainerd to date has twelve games to be played out of the city. This in itself will be a strenuous task as trips wear down athletes to a certain extent.

Several places for practice have been looked over but conditions are such at present that it looks as though they will be unable to be used. Places that could be used will not be given over to the high school for this purpose.

The first game of the season will be played Friday, December 14. Other games include Staples January 11, Crosby-Ironton January 18, Little Falls January 25, St. Cloud January 26, Wadena February 1, Pine River February 8, Crosby-Ironton February 15, Aitkin February 22, Little Falls March 1.

Dates with Bemidji and Motley have not been definitely decided upon yet.

CENTER

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Borden who have been visiting with their relatives here returned to their home in Milwaukee, Wis., Saturday.

Several of the farmers are taking advantage of the warm weather and doing their fall plowing.

Melvin Stropp is serving on the jury in Brainerd.

George Passe of Hammond, Minn., visited with old neighbors in Center last Saturday on his way deer hunting in the northern part of the county. Mr. Passe was former owner of the Bolling Ranch.

John Geisinger is plowing with two tractors on his farm south of Brainerd this week.

Nels Christianson of Merrifield was a caller in Center last week.

W. L. Buttler was a Brainerd caller last week.

Mrs. J. W. Cheney returned to her home last Monday after spending a couple of weeks with her son in Mason City, Iowa.

A number of neighbors attended a wedding reception for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Borden. They received many nice presents.

E. E. Taylor hauled a couple of loads of logs to Sabin's saw mill in Mission Tuesday.

Several of the neighbors helped Art Feierabend shingle his barn last Thursday, completing the job in one day.

Mrs. Jane Borden and son, Wendell, were Brainerd callers Friday.

MINNESOTA TO PLAY HASKELL ON SATURDAY

THE REGULAR BACKFIELD IS TO START AGAINST THE INDIANS

Minneapolis, Nov. 15.—Minnesota regulars went through their first practice of the week yesterday. The Gophers meet Haskell Saturday and close the season with Wisconsin the following week. The regular backfield — Nagurski, Pharmer, Hovde and Brockmeyer—will start against the Indians.

Iowa City, Nov. 15.—A defense for Wisconsin's aerial attack is the chief concern in the Iowa football camp. Coach Ingwersen has been putting the varsity and freshmen through their paces all week in attack and defense for the passes Wisconsin is expected to use Saturday.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 15.—Harold Smith, fullback, is being groomed by the Badgers to offset Mayes McLain, Iowa's Indian flash. Smith, hurt earlier in the season, will be back in the game Saturday. He will alternate with Reibholz, a veteran and a great defensive player.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Burgess and Leyer, ranking backs of the University of Chicago's football team, will not be in the Illinois game on Saturday on account of injuries received in scrimmage.

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 15.—Defense against passes that are expected from the Chicago team Saturday has been the main object of practice this week for the Illini.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 15.—Notre Dame took another rest yesterday with the result that the Irish have only today and tomorrow to get acquainted with Carnegie Tech's tactics. While Rockne fears Tech's attack, he fears still more that his team will go stale after its strenuous schedule.

Evanston, Ill., Nov. 15.—After a light workout this afternoon, the Northwestern football team will depart for Bloomington, Ind., to meet the Hoosiers Saturday. The game will wind-up the Purple's season.

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 15.—Several injured veterans probably will be back in the Indiana line-up when it meets Northwestern. Captain

Bennett seems to be back in his old form and Matthew has returned to his post as guard.

MONUMENT WORKS DOWN ALLEY KIDS

INDEPENDENTS TAKE 3 GAMES STRAIGHT FROM MOOSE NO. 1 LAST EVENING

The Alley Kids made most of the noise and the Monument Works got most of the pins, winning two of three games. Charlie Trebtski, with a 531, led his team, while Hall had a 503.

The Independents took three from Moose No. 1. Roy Warnberg got hot with a couple of 200 counts, getting a 579 in three games, while Dietz, rolling only two games, had a total of 418.

FRANCE WILL REJECT REQUEST FOR BLACKMER

TO DENY EXTRADITION TO AMERICA ON INCOME TAX CHARGE

ALL PAPERS IN CASE TURNED OVER TO THE ACCUSATIONS COURT

Paris, Nov. 15.—(U.P.)—France will reject the American government's request for extradition of Henry Blackmer, wanted in the United States on an income tax charge, the United Press learned in highly authoritative quarters today.

The procurer-general today turned all of the papers in the case over to the accusations court which is expected to throw out the request. It is pointed out that the French law limits extradition to within three years of the commission of the crime, whereas five years have passed in the Blackmer case.

Also the offense of making a false statement in a fiscal statement, which was the basis of the American request, is not punishable in France.

Under French law, the decision of the accusations court is final if it rejects request, although the minister of justice could reverse the decision if the request were granted.

DIES FROM INJURIES RECEIVED IN RUSH

Greenley, Colo., Nov. 15.—(U.P.)—Injuries received in the annual sophomore-freshman rush last Saturday resulted in the death of Miles Noah, 19-year-old Colorado teachers college student, authorities investigating the boy's death said today. The youth probably was kicked in the head during the melee, it was believed.

U. S. EXPORTS IN OCTOBER BREAK RECORDS

Washington, Nov. 15.—(U.P.)—United States exports during October were $550,000,000, breaking all records since January, 1921, according to preliminary figures issued today by the commerce department. The bulk of the increase was said to be due to larger shipments of cotton, wheat and tobacco.

Imports for October reached $357,000,000 which was the largest monthly record for the year.

Ask Increase in Street Car Fares in the Twin Cities, South St. Paul

St. Paul, Nov. 15.—(U.P.)—The Twin City Rapid Transit Company today filed an application with the state railroad and warehouse commission for an increase in street car fares in Minneapolis, St. Paul and South St. Paul.

In its application the transit company pointed out that it did not at the present time receive a fair return on the money invested in the three cities.

While no specified increase fare was asked it was understood here that a rise from eight to nine or ten cents was desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ilse entertained a party of friends at their home last evening.

Judge Alderman left for Walker this afternoon on legal business.

E. A. Shew left this afternoon for Blackduck, where he will spend some time in the woods.

Gov. Charles N. Herried, of South Dakota, was a distinguished guest in the city for a short time today.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Sandberg left this afternoon for California where they expect to make their future home.

FRED STONE HAS LEFT HOSPITAL

VICTIM OF AIRPLANE CRASH HAS DANCING LEGS WRAPPED IN BANDAGES

New London, Conn., Nov. 15.—(U.P.)—Nearly three and one-half months after his airplane nose-dived into a beet patch at Groton, Fred Stone left the Lawrence and Memorial Association hospitals here today.

His dancing legs were wrapped in bandages. He left the hospital in a wheel chair.

"I said I wouldn't leave this hospital until I could walk out," the Canadian drawled. "Well, I had to change my mind a little. But I'll be on my feet again in a few weeks."

Stone was to go in an ambulance with Mrs. Stone to New York this afternoon. The flight on Aug. 3 when Stone crashed his biplane near Trumbull Field was his last, he has promised his family.

SEA CAUSES DISTRESS TO SHIPS

(By United Press)

From Charleston, S. C., to Folkestone, England, the sea caused distress to ships today.

Four of the coast guard vessels searching for dead of the sunken liner Vestris—of whom there supposedly were 114—reported they had been disabled by heavy weather off the Virginia Capes.

The cutter Yamacraw reported finding the distressed schooner Anna R. Heldritter, which flashed SOS signals off Charleston as early as Tuesday night.

From Folkestone came word that 12 crew members were known dead and three others believed drowned when a Rye lifeboat capsized after striking Camber Sands.

The Geraldine Mary, Newfoundland-to-London, wireless that she was drifting off Cape Clear, Ireland, after her engines stopped.

St. Paul, Nov. 15.—(U.P.)—The Twin City Rapid Transit Company today filed an application with the state railroad and warehouse commission for an increase in street car fares in Minneapolis, St. Paul and South St. Paul.

In its application the transit company pointed out that it did not at the present time receive a fair return on the money invested in the three cities.

Severson Transportation Given Permission to Operate Between Staples-Brainerd

COMMISSION SANCTIONS IT

Action Said to be an Effort to Combat So-Called Fargo Freight Rate Decision

Permission to operate motor freight truck lines between Little Falls and Wadena and between Staples and Brainerd, was granted to the Severson Transportation by the state railroad and warehouse commission, the United Press reports today.

These lines were said to have been sanctioned by the commission in an effort to combat the so-called Fargo freight rate decision.

Severson was also granted permission to establish joint freight rates with the Bollig Transportation Company, Pierz, between Wadena and the Twin Cities over a shorter route than that of rival companies.

FOURTEEN HORSES PERISH IN FIRE

St. Paul, Nov. 15.—(U.P.)—Fourteen horses perished here early today when fire destroyed the barn, garage and storehouse of the St. Paul Park department. Loss was estimated at approximately $10,000.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

November 15, 1903

Last evening two prominent young society people, while sauntering through the park, fell in a hole near the west entrance and the young lady swears she will bring suit against the city.

The Shakespeare mining company directors, who reside in this city held a short meeting this morning at the Johnson Pharmacy. The reports by Secretary R. J. Hartley, from the mine, are very encouraging.

Miss May Whitney left this afternoon for Minneapolis where she expects to spend a part of the winter.

Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone left this afternoon for the Twin Cities for a few days visit.

Deputy Game Warden Saunders returned from the north this afternoon. He reports the boys behaving unusually well this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ise entertained a party of friends at their home last evening.

Judge Alderman left for Walker this afternoon on legal business.

E. A. Shew left this afternoon for Blackduck, where he will spend some time in the woods.

Gov. Charles N. Herried, of South Dakota, was a distinguished guest in the city for a short time today.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Sandberg left this afternoon for California where they expect to make their future home.

FRED STONE HAS LEFT HOSPITAL

DANCING LEGS WRAPPED
IN BANDAGES

New London, Conn., Nov. 15.—(U.P.)—Nearly three and one-half months after his airplane nose-dived into a beet patch at Groton, Fred Stone left the Lawrence and Memorial Association hospitals here today.

His dancing legs were wrapped in bandages. He left the hospital in a wheel chair.

"I said I wouldn't leave this hospital until I could walk out," the Canadian drawled. "Well, I had to change my mind a little. But I'll be on my feet again in a few weeks."

Stone was to go in an ambulance with Mrs. Stone to New York this afternoon. The flight on Aug. 3 when Stone crashed his biplane near Trumbull Field was his last, he has promised his family.

SEA CAUSES DISTRESS TO SHIPS

(By United Press)

From Charleston, S. C., to Folkestone, England, the sea caused distress to ships today.

Four of the coast guard vessels searching for dead of the sunken liner Vestris—of whom there supposedly were 114—reported they had been disabled by heavy weather off the Virginia Capes.

The cutter Yamacraw reported finding the distressed schooner Anna R. Heidritter, which flashed SOS signals off Charleston as early as Tuesday night.

From Folkestone came word that 12 crew members were known dead and three others believed drowned when a Rye lifeboat capsized after striking Camber Sands.

The Geraldine Mary, Newfoundland-to-London, wireless that she was drifting off Cape Clear, Ireland, after her engines stopped.

Jury Returns Verdict of Guilty of Third Degree Assault Yesterday

OUT SIX HOURS

Marathon Dance Money Dispute Tried in District Court Today

W. T. Conkin was found guilty of assault in the third degree by a jury in district court last evening after six hours of deliberation. Judge Edward Freeman announced he would impose sentence later.

Conkin faced the district court on the charge of second degree assault upon O. H. McAninch on May 16, 1928 when he was alleged to have attacked McAninch, inflicting a wound with a knife.

County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan represented the state with Attorney G. S. Swanson conducting the defense.

The civil action of George H. Johantgen vs. Charles Steffes, a suit for recovery of money and for services, was being tried in district court today.

Basil T. Heath and Per M. Larson, defendant's attorneys based their case on the claim that Johantgen and Steffes were partners in the dance marathon recently held in Brainerd and that as such money placed in by Johantgen was taken into the partnership.

Attorney Clem Ryan, representing the plaintiff offered testimony to claim that no partnership had been formed. Johantgen is asking for the recovery of $633.13 a loan, and for services to the amount of $105.

A verdict was returned Tuesday in the amount of $232 for the plaintiff in the action of Mary Ritter vs. the Lincoln Camp for Boys. Suit was entered for $464 for services.

RAIN STOPS THREE FIRES IN DISTRICT

Fire Burns Over 160 Acres in Garrison Township; Carelessness of Hunters Blamed

FIRE SEASON OVER

Fire North of Merrifield and One in Allen Township Under Control Yesterday

Carelessness by hunters with matches and cigarettes in the woods is blamed for two of the three fires which broke out in the woods of the Brainerd district this week and which were stopped yesterday by the rain.

The fire in Garrison township was checked yesterday after it had burned over 160 acres. A brush fire north of Merrifield and another in Allen township were also under control yesterday.

Little trouble will be experienced from bush fires the remainder of this fall and winter, it is believed.

PLATTE LAKE

On Sunday, November 18, the Immanuel church of Platte Lake will observe a double anniversary with a special service in the morning at 10:30 o'clock, the events being the fifth anniversary since the dedication of the church, and the 10th anniversary since the organization of this congregation. A most hearty welcome is herewith extended to all people. At this service three families will be officially and formally received into the congregation; the Lord's supper will be administered, and baptisms will take place at the opening of service.

On Sunday special confirmation services were held here at the church for three separate classes that had finished their course of instruction in the doctrines of Holy Scripture. Five of the class who had been baptized previously (some in infancy, others somewhat later) were confirmed, and two of the class were baptized; all making the promise by the help and grace of God to be led by the Holy Spirit and to continue steadfast in the faith according to God's Word. They were upon this their promise officially received into the congregation. The following were the members of the class confirmed, and baptized: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gorton, Mrs. Ernest Brand, Mrs. Henry Templin, Lily and Lila Sherwood, and Rosalie Manette.

A week ago Saturday five families of the Platte Lake church: Boeders, Frederiksen, E. Johnsons, Seglers, and Heidtkes gathered at the E. F.

Gross home to celebrate their 25th or silver wedding anniversary. Appropriate gifts in keeping with the anniversary were presented to the bride and groom of 25 years ago, by the pastor in the name of the congregation which had united in getting the gifts. Most pleasant hours were enjoyed by all present.

Pete Milnar, Edwin Magnuson, and Alvin Wohl went up to Swan

River, Minn., to try their luck in getting a deer.

Mrs. August Kuschel who had been on the sick list for a number of weeks was taken to Rochester for an operation. We sincerely hope she will soon be well again.

Insist on OCCIDENT FLOUR, and you will have the best. Your grocer will be glad to furnish you. 13914

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR

JERRY DUNN, star reporter on a large newspaper, meets Ann Tremaine, debutante daughter of a wealthy banker. He convinces her of the emptiness of the life she is leading, and takes her to live at his boarding house. There she is projected into a new world of people. She is immediately attracted to Steve Harrison, a husky young pugilist. Jerry warns her of this, but she cannot put Steve out of her mind. The next day she gets a job as ticket seller in a small local theatre owned by a Greek, Nick Pagalos. She tells Steve about her job and he offers to take tickets for the show, paying her for them then. Ann is furious and tells him to pay at the box office. Then she calls Jerry into her room to tell him of her good fortune.

CHAPTER XVI.

AS Jerry Dunn came into her room, Ann heard the stairs creaking under Steve Harrison's ascent to the floor above. Secretly, so far down in the nether regions of her reason that she failed to admit the truth to her conscious self, she knew that Steve would not forget—that some seed, be it good or evil, was implanted in his mind. Inevitably it would grow.

The alert enthusiasm of Jerry Dunn, his keen interest, made her insensible to any further disturbing feelings and it was two o'clock in the morning before they finished talking about her new job at the American Family Theater.

Jerry was delighted. "Now you'll begin to get some fun out of life," he said.

"How?"

"You'll get to understand people, and that's all the fun there is in living. Just understanding people."

He looked so serious about it, so passionately sincere in his ideas, that she almost laughed. It was so late and she was so sleepy that she merely smiled.

"Oh, for heaven's sake, don't you ever stop philosophizing?" she asked, drowsy-eyed. "I'm with you on looking for the worthwhile things in life, but it's such a lot of trouble to keep thinking and talking about it all the time, isn't it?"

Jerry, whose night work as a reporter permitted him to sleep until noon, was wide awake and alert. This, for him, was the flank of the evening. His gray eyes sharpened at the bantering challenge to his seriousness.

"You've only seen that side of me," he asserted.

"Is there another?"

"You bet. I've got a romantic streak as wide as the Atlantic. Want to hear about it?"

"Must I?"

I got into one that was being lowered. It would not lower and we transferred to another boat which also stuck. Then the Vestris started to turn on its side. I jumped for the deck but must have fallen into the water. When I emerged I was just about exhausted. Then Second Officer Swanson swam alongside and held me up until life boat No. 11, manned by negroes, came up and we got in.

"I never saw my husband again and oh I am so glad he is safe. The Myriam rescued us."

"While on the Myriam I heard once that the vessel had passed the bodies of a woman and child, buoyed up by life belts, floating on the water. Then I saw a man, about middle aged, swimming. He wore a life belt."

Harry Fay, a boxer from Louisville who said he was enroute to Buenos Aires to fight Luis Angel Firpo on December 15 or 20, also was on the Myriam. His only reaction was to overcome his hunger. He ate several apples and munched cheerfully on sandwiches.

Joshua Ford told a story similar to those related yesterday and said "Captain Carey should have sent out the SOS Sunday rather than wait until Monday."

It became more apparent when T. R. Edwards, a steward, talked, that Captain Carey voluntarily had chosen to go to his death with the ship.

"Just before leaving I saw the captain and Second Mate Watson standing on the bridge. They were gripping hands as if saying good-bye. Then they walked to the rail. The captain looked out over the water. He and Watson again gripped hands and just as the Vestris started to sink, Watson leaped into the water. I never saw the captain again."

Watson was taken immediately to the hospital as he had several fractured ribs. He would not discuss the sinking nor would he comment on the possible cause of the disaster.

Evans Hampden, a fireman, told of a boatswain finding the port door open.

"That damned door should have been closed at Hoboken and it never was," Hampden said.

The boatswain after he discovered that he could not close this door because the bolts stuck, were rusty, and had not been greased, gave it up and all he did was to move some

empty boxes away from the door, which seemed a silly thing to do.

"The stoke hold began to flood with water, and finally the chief engineer himself manned the pump with a couple of assistants but tons of water kept coming through the coal port."

No More Piles

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad blood circulation in the lower bowel. Cutting and salves can't do this—an internal remedy must be used. Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds because it relieves this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has a wonderful record for quick, safe and lasting relief to pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. H. P. Dunn, Johnson's Pharmacy and druggists anywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee.

Girls! Tell This to Your Skinny Friend

Tell him that the quick easy way to put pounds of solid flesh on his bones is to take McCoy's Tablets.

Tell him that besides helping him to fill out his flat chest and sunken cheeks and neck McCoy's will make him strong and vigorous and give him more ambition.

Miss Alberta Rogers, thin and run down, gained 15 pounds in six weeks.

McCoy's takes all the risk—Read this ironclad guarantee. If after taking 4 sixty cent boxes of McCoy's Tablets or 2 One Dollar boxes any thin, underweight man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds and feel completely satisfied with the marked improvement in health—your money will be refunded.

Just ask for McCoy's Tablets at H. P. Dunn's, Johnson's Pharmacy or any drug store. Distributed by McCoy's Laboratories, Inc., also distributors of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil—there is none better.

CALIFORNIA IS RECUPERATING FROM SEVERE STORMS

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 15.—(UP)—This section of California today was recovering from one of the worst storms of the year with estimated damage running into the thousands of dollars.

Pimples

Pimples vanish like magic with the new remedy called Kitagran—a pleasant, harmless tablet easy to take. It clears up the impurities in the blood so quickly that pimples often disappear within 24 hours. Kitagran can be obtained at Johnson's Pharmacy, who will return purchase price if you are not thoroughly satisfied.

Took Soda 20 Years For Gas--Stops Now

"For 20 years I took soda for indigestion and stomach gas. One bottle of Adlerika brought me complete relief."—J. B. Hardy.

Adlerika relieves stomach gas and sourness in TEN minutes. Acting on BOTH upper and lower bowel, it removes old waste matter you never thought was in your system. Let Adlerika give your stomach and bowels a REAL cleansing and see how much better you feel. It will surprise you! Johnson's Pharmacy and Economy Drug Co.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store. Johnson's Pharmacy and Economy Drug Co.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR

JERRY DUNN, star reporter on a large newspaper, meets Ann Tremaine, debutante daughter of a wealthy banker. He convinces her of the emptiness of the life she is leading, and takes her to live at his boarding house. There she is projected into a new world of people. She is immediately attracted to Steve Harrison, a husky young pugilist. Jerry warns her of this, but she cannot put Steve out of her mind. The next day she gets a job as ticket seller in a small local theatre owned by a Greek, Nick Pagalos. She tells Steve about her job and he offers to take tickets for the show, paying her for them. Ann is furious and tells him to pay at the box office. Then she calls Jerry into her room to tell him of her good fortune.

CHAPTER XVI.

AS Jerry Dunn came into her room, Ann heard the stairs creaking under Steve Harrison's ascent to the floor above. Secretly, so far down in the nether regions of her reason that she failed to admit the truth to her conscious self, she knew that Steve would not forget—that some seed, be it good or evil, was implanted in his mind. Inevitably it would grow.

The alert enthusiasm of Jerry Dunn, his keen interest, made her insensible to any further disturbing feelings and it was two o'clock in the morning before they finished talking about her new job at the American Family Theater.

Jerry was delighted.

"Now you'll begin to get some fun out of life," he said.

"How?"

"You'll get to understand people, and that's all the fun there is in living. Just understanding people."

He looked so serious about it, so passionately sincere in his ideas, that she almost laughed. It was so late and she was so sleepy that she merely smiled.

"Oh, for heaven's sake, don't you ever stop philosophizing?" she asked, drowsy-eyed. "I'm with you on looking for the worthwhile things in life, but it's such a lot of trouble to keep thinking and talking about it all the time, isn't it?"

Jerry, whose night work as a reporter permitted him to sleep until noon, was wide awake and alert. This, for him, was the slant of the evening. His gray eyes sharpened at the bantering challenge to his seriousness.

"You've only seen that side of me," he asserted.

"Is there another?"

"Must I?"

"I'm afraid you must, sooner or later."

"But Jerry—I thought we were friends?"

"You poor, sweet little sap, don't you know there is no such thing as permanent friendship between a man and a girl like you?"

Lord, you're too loaded down with appeal for that! I don't think I'm exceptional—one man could be around you much without wanting you. Might as well tell you about it now as later."

"Jerry?"

"Oh, be yourself, Ann. Now, honestly, didn't you know it would crop up between us sometime?"

Her eyes grew wistful. "Please believe me, Jerry. I'm terribly sorry."

"Because you don't hit me that way. You're finer—you mean more to me than just the usual sex stuff. Maybe that's why I don't feel any of it for you."

"You mean—I don't hand you anything at all?" he asked, his eyes clouding.

"Not in that way—nothing."

"Of course, there hasn't been much time for it to develop," he mused.

"I'm afraid I never will, old scout. A thing like that, I imagine, must happen right off the bat. It ought to click at the first meeting."

"It did with me," he asserted.

"I know it did," she said, with a tinge of unhappiness. "But I didn't think it would get violent—besides we have so much else in common—"

"What you said about it clicking at first sight—what do you know about that sort of thing?"

She was silent.

"Did anything like that ever happen to you, Ann?"

"Oh, let's drop it. We won't get anywhere this way and it may spoil everything. You know I care for you, Jerry. I left home and came here with you to try to build my life into something worth while—because of you. You're the first man I ever met who really meant anything to me. You're trying to make a real person out of me instead of an upper class nit-wit. I think you're a peach and a darling. If you knew what a pedestal I put you on, you'd be unbearably swell headed. Isn't that enough?"

He looked at her with searching eyes.

"If I mean all that to you I ought to come first."

"You do."

"I do not," he said slowly.

"That's the hell of it, for me. You're my kind of a girl and you say I'm your kind of a man—yet you fall for that roughneck, Steve Harrison."

The tide of color began to rise in her throat. By what subtle instinct had he fathomed the repressed feeling she had for Steve?

"You have no right to say that," she declared.

"No right on earth, except it happens to be true."

"What makes you believe that?"

"Because you can't hide it—your eyes show it. The way you look at him. And he was hanging around your door talking to you when I came."

"But—but—"

"If you're going to fall for the first vigorous male animal you meet—well, you'll simply smash your life, Ann. That way lies disaster."

"But it would be all right to fall for you—"

"Yes. We'd probably marry and make a big success of it. Like you, I thought at first that we might be pals, but now I see we can't. I care too much—I love you, dear—"

"Jerry—don't—please—"

"Why?"

"Because I don't want to marry. I want—"

He got up from the chair in which he sat.

"You don't want marriage? That's right. I know what you want. You want an affair—with a big, lusty fellow like Harrison. You're super-refined and you crave to be captured by a plug-ugly caveman. Well, dear girl, it won't happen. Believe me it won't. I didn't discover you to turn you over to that lunk."

"Aren't you trying to act like a caveman yourself, Jerry?" Ann asked.

"When I turn caveman you won't be in any doubt of it," he said, recovering his poise and smiling. "What you forget—You and Steve—is that brains always win. Brains win everything—even women."

Pimples

Pimples vanish like magic with the new remedy called Kitagran—a pleasant, harmless tablet easy to take. It clears up the impurities in the blood so quickly that pimples often disappear within 24 hours. Kitagran can be obtained at Johnson's Pharmacy, who will return purchase price if you are not thoroughly satisfied.

Took Soda 20 Years For Gas—Stops Now

"For 20 years I took soda for indigestion and stomach gas. One bottle of Adlerika brought me complete relief."—J. B. Hardy.

Adlerika relieves stomach gas and sourness in TEN minutes. Acting on BOTH upper and lower bowel, it removes old waste matter you never thought was in your system. Let Adlerika give your stomach and bowels a REAL cleansing and see how much better you feel. It will surprise you! Johnson's Pharmacy and Economy Drug Co.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

An Amazing Success Feen-a-mint

The Chewing LAXATIVE

Chew It Like Chewing Gum
A pleasure to use. Very efficient. Children love it. No taste but that of sweet mint. The most popular laxative because it's a "satisfier." 15c and 25c.

Keep youth longer!

cleanse the system of poisons

Two of the great enemies to youth and vitality are delayed elimination and intestinal poisons. To keep yourself free from both these common difficulties will help you to stay young.

With the use of Nujol you can do it too. For Nujol absorbs body poisons and carries them off, preventing their absorption by the body. Nujol also softens the waste matter and brings about normal evacuation. It is harmless; contains no drugs or medicine. It won't cause gas or griping pains, or affect the stomach or kidneys. Every corner druggist has Nujol. Make sure you get the genuine. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle. Don't delay, get Nujol today.

I got into one that was being lowered. It would not lower and we transferred to another boat which also stuck. Then the Vestris started to turn on its side. I jumped for the deck but must have fallen into the water. When I emerged I was just about exhausted. Then Second Officer Swanson swam alongside and held me up until life boat No. 11, manned by negroes, came up and we got in.

"While on the Myriam I heard once that the vessel had passed the bodies of a woman and child, buoyed up by life belts, floating on the water. Then I saw a man, about middle aged, swimming. He wore a life belt."

Harry Fay, a boxer from Louisville who said he was enroute to Buenos Aires to fight Luis Angel Firpo on December 15 or 20, also was on the Myriam. His only reaction was to overcome his hunger. He ate several apples and munched cheerfully on sandwiches.

Joshua Ford told a story similar to those related yesterday and said "Captain Carey should have sent out the SOS Sunday rather than wait until Monday."

It became more apparent when T. R. Edwards, a steward, talked, that Captain Carey voluntarily had chosen to go to his death with the ship.

"Just before leaving I saw the captain and Second Mate Watson standing on the bridge. They were gripping hands as if saying good-bye. Then they walked to the rail. The captain looked out over the water. He and Watson again gripped hands and just as the Vestris started to sink, Watson leaped into the water. I never saw the captain again."

Watson was taken immediately to the hospital as he had several fractured ribs. He would not discuss the sinking nor would he comment on the possible cause of the disaster.

Evans Hampden, a fireman, told of a boatswain finding the port door open.

"That damned door should have been closed at Hoboken and it never was," Hampden said.

The boatswain after he discovered that he could not close this door because the bolts stuck, were rusty, and had not been greased, gave it up and all he did was to move some

"The stoke hold began to flood with water, and finally the chief engineer himself manned the pump with a couple of assistants but tons of water kept coming through the coal port."
